Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 2nd October, 1888:

NO. 14 OF 1888.

A Bill to repeal certain enactments relating to the purchase of regimental necessaries from soldiers.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the enactments specified in the schedule to this Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Repeal.

1. The enactments specified in the schedule are hereby repealed.

SCHEDULE.

Number and year.	Subject or title.	Extent of repeal.
Act of the Governor General in Council.
VII of 1867	Purchase of regimental necessaries from soldiers.	So much as has not been repealed.
Regulation of the Madras Code.
XIV of 1832	Purchase of regimental necessaries from soldiers.	So much as has not been repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE primary object of this Bill is to repeal Act VII of 1867 (an Act to reduce the pecuniary penalty for purchasing from soldiers arms, ammunition, clothes and other articles), and so to enable the Governor-General in Council, under the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, to authorise the imposition of substantial fines on persons purchasing regimental necessaries from soldiers. The experience of the past twenty-one years has proved the fines which may be imposed under Act VII of 1867 not to be deterrent. Unlawful traffic in soldiers' kits has been steadily increasing.

The secondary object of the Bill is to repeal an obsolete Regulation of the Madras Code (I. L. R. 10 Mad. 108).

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE SALT DEPARTMENT FOR THE YEAR 1887-88.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT—SALT.

Darjeeling, the 9th October 1888.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on the Administration of the Salt Department for the year 1887-88.

During the year under review there were two important administrative changes, (1) the increase of the duty on all kinds of salt from Rs. 2 to Rs. 2-8 per maund, and (2) the extension of the Indian Salt Act XII of 1882 to the districts of the Orissa Division, and the formal transfer of the control of the Salt Department to the Commissioner of Salt Revenue, Madras. The result of the increase in duty, which took effect from the 19th of January last, on the consumption of salt, was not discernible, the Board report, during the year under review, but it should be noticed in reporting on the administration of the current year.

2. The following statement shows the receipts and charges of the Department during the past six years:—

The results of the year under review, as compared with the previous year, show a decrease of Rs. 10,66,523, or 5·3 per cent. in the receipts, and of Rs. 2,179, or ·9 per cent. in the charges. There was a decrease under all the heads of receipts; that under the head of Duty was due to smaller clearances, and that under the head of Rent of warehouses to the reduction of the rate of rent from Rs. 5 to Rs. 3 per 1,000 maunds. The decrease in the charges was nominal.

3. The total quantity of salt in stock at the commencement of the year was 10,14,529 maunds: of this 8,49,348 maunds had been imported, and the remainder was excise salt. During the year 99,86,076 maunds were imported, and 1,03,559 maunds were manufactured, against 1,03,79,688 maunds and 66,483 maunds, the corresponding figures for last year. The stock in hand at the close of the year was 11,75,347 maunds. Importation of salt was confined during the year to the ports of Calcutta and Chittagong. There was a decrease of 3,93,349 maunds as compared with the total quantity imported in the previous year. Salt was imported chiefly from the United Kingdom, Bombay, Arabian and Persian Gulfs, and Aden. The trade with Italy, which was formerly only second in importance to that with the United Kingdom, ceased entirely this year, owing, it is said, to the growth of transactions with Aden and other Arabian ports. The receipts from the Arabian and Persian Gulfs and Aden are increasing rapidly, but the absence of imports from India, and the recent development of Perim as a coaling station, are likely to interfere with the facilities for exporting salt from the latter port. The clearances of salt from ship-board showed a decrease of 4,35,806 maunds, or 5·5 per cent., in Calcutta, and an increase of 23,197 maunds, or 28 per cent., in Chittagong. The total quantity cleared from bond in all ports amounted to 17,59,788 maunds, against 18,09,213 maunds in 1886-87, and realized a duty of Rs. 36,75,377, against Rs. 36,18,426.

4. Salt was manufactured under the Excise Rules in Orissa alone. Compared with the previous year, the quantity of salt manufactured in Cuttack diminished by 12,526 maunds, owing partly to the reduction in the number of aurungs, and partly to the loss sustained during the heavy rains of June and July 1887. In Balasore the decrease, amounting to 32,532 maunds, was caused by large importations of Liverpool salt; while in Pooree there was an increase of 82,134 maunds, due to the resumption of business by the manufacturers, who, being apprehensive of the Madras Rules, had given up the industry in the previous year. The sales of excise salt decreased from 2,35,657 maunds to 1,82,860 maunds in quantity, and the amount of duty realized fell from Rs. 4,71,315 to Rs. 3,82,854. The decrease is attributed to the importation of salt from Ganjam and Liverpool, and to the cessation of the manufacture of Punga salt.

5. The consumption of salt in the saliferous districts fell off from 10,68,515 maunds in 1886-87 to 10,62,402 maunds in the past year. The decrease occurred in all the districts except Chittagong and Balasore, where there were small increases of 571 maunds and 851 maunds respectively. There was an increase of 80, or 22·2 per cent., in the number of seizures, while there was a decrease of 1,123 maunds, or 69 per cent., in the quantity of salt attached, and of 525 maunds, or 91·4 per cent., in the quantity of salt confiscated. The number of cases instituted for offences against the Salt laws increased from 425 in 1886-87 to 501 in the present year. The amounts realized as fines and disbursed as rewards were Rs. 2,300 and Rs. 1,307, against Rs. 2,327 and Rs. 1,904, respectively, in the previous year.

6. The following table compares the despatches of salt into the interior by the different water routes and railways during the past two years—

From the figures given above, it appears that there was a decrease of 1,33,712 maunds in the quantity of salt conveyed by water, and an increase of 3,984 maunds in the despatches by rail

7. The quantity of salt bonded during 1887-88 was 21,53,021 maunds, against 21,01,423 maunds in the previous year. The increase occurred entirely in the bonding of Liverpool salt, and may be ascribed to the reduction in the rate of rent which came into operation at the beginning of the year. The quantity remaining in store at the end of the year was 10,37,324 maunds, against 8,08,374 maunds at the commencement.

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE OUTSTILL SYSTEM IN HOOGHLY AND HOWRAH.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT EXCISE.

Darjeeling, the 13th October 1888.

RESOLUTION.

WHEN the outstill system was generally introduced in these Provinces, one of the tracts excluded from its operation was the Revenue district of Hooghly, including Howrah. Subsequently the sub-division of Jehanabad, which was under the outstill system, was transferred from the jurisdiction of Burdwan to that of Hooghly. The shops in the excluded tracts were supplied from five distilleries (Bhastara, Radhanagore, Mohiari, Hooghly and Serampore), of which the first three were situated at some distance from district or sub-divisional head-quarters. One of the recommendations of the Excise Commission was that the Bhastara and Radhanagore distilleries should be closed, and that the Mohiari distillery should be removed to the head-quarters of the Uluberia sub-division. The Board of Revenue, on examining the question in communication with the local officers, came to the conclusion that a preferable measure would be the extension of the outstill system to the whole area hitherto supplied with liquor from these distilleries. It was pointed out that the fees realized from Bhastara and Radhanagore did not even cover the expenses of the repairs of the buildings, much less the cost of the establishment maintained at the distilleries. The fees paid in 1885-86 were Rs. 106-14, against establishment charges only of Rs. 1,900. And there were clear indications that the requirements of liquor-consumers were to a great extent supplied by smuggling from the adjoining outstill tract. The proposed distillery at Uluberia, on the other hand, would have had to supply a tract separated by river only from the outstill jurisdiction of the 24-Pergunnahs on one side and Midnapore on the other, and there was evidence that smuggling of outstill liquor was rife in this part of the Howrah district. The Board accordingly, influenced by the strong representations of the local officers, recommended, in preference to the proposals of the Excise Commission, the extension of the outstill system to the whole of the Hooghly Revenue district, with the exception of a densely populated suburban area extending from Mugra to the southern limit of the Howrah Municipality. This proposal was accepted by Sir Rivers Thompson in Government orders No. 2071T—F, dated 3rd November 1886, as well as the Board's proposal to appoint a specially qualified Excise Deputy Collector to supervise the arrangements connected with the change of system. As was observed in Government Resolution, dated 5th December 1887, the result was the reduction of the number of distillery shops from 139 to 47, while the number of outstills in the district was only increased from 30 to 52. In November 1887, the Lieutenant-Governor received from the Secretary to the Indian Association a letter in which it was declared that, under the new system, facilities for obtaining liquor had been provided; that the price of liquor had been largely reduced; and that crime, immorality and drunkenness had increased. The Association supplied statements put forward by its agents, and Sir Steuart Bayley, deeming it right to cause such definite allegations to be thoroughly investigated, deputed to this duty Mr. E. V. Westmacott, Magistrate of Howrah.

2. Before Mr. Westmacott's report was submitted, it was decided, at the instance of the Government of India, to depute a special officer to Madras and Bombay to study the systems of Excise in force in those Presidencies, and since that time the Secretary of State has requested that the comparative merits of the outstill and other systems may be carefully examined in their application to Excise Administration in Bengal. These enquiries are still under consideration. A copy of Mr. Westmacott's report was, however, unofficially supplied to the Board of Revenue some time ago, and the Lieutenant-Governor is anxious that the recommendations which it contains may be carefully considered in all districts before the ensuing Excise settlements for 1889-90. The changes of system indicated in Mr. Buckland's report are of such a nature as to require very long and careful consideration, and would take a considerable time to mature, even should they be eventually approved. Meanwhile, it is expedient to reform the defects discovered in our existing machinery, and from this point of view Sir Steuart Bayley deems it advisable to review briefly the conclusions at which Mr. Westmacott has arrived on the representations of the Indian Association.

3. At the outset, the Lieutenant-Governor desires to express his acknowledgments of the public service rendered by the Association in examining the subject of the outstill administration in Hooghly and Howrah, and laying before Government the allegations of its agents and correspondents. Those allegations have been fully and patiently investigated by Mr. Westmacott; and though some of them have not borne the test of enquiry, the scrutiny to which they have been subjected has had the result of making manifest several defects, which it is both the duty and the interest of Government to remedy. Notwithstanding that the recommendations of the Excise Commission in regard to the capacity of stills and fermenting vats have been nominally introduced, it has been found that the effect of these measures has been practically neutralized, and the consumption of intoxicating drink increased, by the selection of inappropriate sites for shops, by an unduly low rate of duty being fixed on the estimated consumption in calculating the upset price of the stills, and by the capacity of stills and vats originally fixed being "afterwards increased in proportion to the fees the abkars were willing to pay for their licenses," thus giving rise to an undue cheapening of liquor and offering improper facilities for its sale in the interior and its introduction surreptitiously into the urban and suburban areas under the fixed duty system. It is not too much to say that the safeguards which the Excise Commission considered absolutely essential to justify the continued existence of the outstill system have in this tract been so little kept in view that the system became scarcely distinguishable from that which in paragraph 102 received the severe condemnation of the Commission as being likely to foster the very evils which Mr. Westmacott's report has brought to light. On this point the Commission say, in comparing the sudder distillery with the outstill system:—

"There is no difference in principle between the two systems, provided care be taken to limit the producing capacity of the outstills, and to make the revenue paid on each proportionate to its capacity. On the other hand, there is a radical difference between any system under which stills are taxed according to their producing power, or a duty is levied on the amount produced, and any system under which the distiller obtains the privilege of making as much spirit as he can on payment of a sum fixed without reference either to the amount actually produced by him or his means of production. The Commission have no hesitation in condemning the latter for all times and places, whether it takes the form of outstills without limit of producing power, or farms, or any similar arrangement."

The Lieutenant-Governor accepts generally the views contained in the whole of this paragraph, and whatever may be his decision ultimately as to the possibility, under proper safeguards, of so working the outstill system as to free it from the reproach of artificially stimulating the sale of an unnecessarily cheap liquor, he is confident that in this instance those safeguards have not been carefully applied, and the reproach above indicated has been incurred because the system, to which alone the Commission gave its approval, has not been properly, and with all its necessary restrictions, introduced. Its introduction at all into this tract was an exception to the general policy adopted, and it was therefore specially desirable that there should be no relaxation in the safeguards which were recommended. It is probable that in other parts of Bengal the errors brought to light by Mr. Westmacott may equally obtain; and without attempting to decide, without further experience, whether the outstill system, as safeguarded by the recommendations of the Commission, can ultimately be maintained, the practical matter for immediate consideration is the reform of errors in the administration of the system actually in force over the greater part of Bengal.

4. It is unnecessary for the Lieutenant-Governor to discuss in detail each individual statement of personal experience which the informants of the Indian Association have brought forward. These have been examined by Mr. Westmacott. It will be more profitable to consider the general issues arising out of the representation which has been submitted to Government.

5. The first point which Mr. Westmacott's enquiry has established, is the extremely objectionable position in which most of the outstills have been placed. Of the eight outstills referred to specially by the Indian Association, and reported upon in detail by Mr. Westmacott (Singur, Kristonugger, Amta, Haripal, Sripore, Chanditolla, Jhapurda and Juggutbulluhpore), every one is described as occupying an objectionable site. It is shown that they are situated on the public roads, in the middle of villages, or close to schools, or at the junction of great lines of communication. It is impossible to avoid the conclusion that, in selecting these sites, the Special Deputy Collector failed to have regard to some of the most important considerations of Excise Policy, and that his proceedings were insufficiently controlled by the local authorities. On this point Mr. Westmacott observes:—"The outstills generally occupy the sites of previously licensed shops, but the fact that liquor is now drunk on the premises to a much greater extent that before, added to the smell inseparable from the process of distillation, renders the outstill a far greater public nuisance than the shop ever was." It is also to be observed that those shops were very much more numerous than the outstills, and the concentration of drinkers at the outstills called for increased care in the selection of their sites. The circumstance, to be presently referred to, that liquor has been much cheapened under the outstill system is another cause of the increased consumption on the spot, thereby bringing into greater prominence the prevalence of intoxication. It is Mr. Westmacott's opinion that much of the feeling against the outstills in Hooghly has arisen from their objectionable positions: and he recommends that no outstill should be permitted within at least one furlong of any town or market-place, or any road leading to it. He also recommends that, where the dealer cannot procure an objectionable site, or is unwilling to sink his money in a temporary venture, the Government should take up the land required and let it out to the outstill licensee. This is a question on which the Lieutenant-Governor would be glad to have the Board's opinion. There are obvious objections to the Government being more closely connected than it is at present with the direct manufacture and sale of spirits; but from the point of view of increased control and better supervision the proposal has much to recommend it. It is clear that spirit cannot be manufactured after the country method, in the midst of a populous bazar, without grave inconvenience to the comfort and health of the inhabitants, and without offering patent and needless facilities for intoxication. The existing arrangements must be thoroughly revised before the next settlements. Having regard, however, to the density of the population in parts of the tract in question, and particularly of the villages referred to by the Indian Association, the Lieutenant-Governor would wish the Board to consider whether it might not be advisable in some cases to apply the system adopted, on the recommendation of the Excise Commission, for towns in which the establishment of central distilleries is not desirable. Liquor is manufactured outside the inhabited portion of the village, and is sold at retail shops in selected places. Whatever may be the decision on this point, the retention of most of the existing sites referred to by Mr. Westmacott cannot clearly be permitted.

6. It is alleged by the Indian Association that, while the position of the outstills has facilitated the supply of liquor and presented temptations to drinking, the lowering of the price of liquor has largely stimulated its consumption. Mr. Westmacott's enquiry has shown how seriously the price of liquor has been lowered, and how little restriction has been placed on the abkar's natural desire to extend his manufacture and his sale of the cheapened liquor. He admits, too, that these causes have necessarily led to an increase of consumption, though the conclusion he draws as to actual increase in drunkenness among the drinking class, or the spread of habits of drinking to classes previously free from them, is different. Mr. Westmacott rightly draws attention to a misleading form of expression employed both by the Indian Association and by other bodies and persons who have discussed the question of Excise Administration in this country. The words "sobriety" and "drunkenness" are frequently used to indicate habits and conditions very different from those suggested by the use of these terms in countries where no class of society can be described as total abstainers from the use of intoxicants. By the term a "sober" man is represented, not a man who preserves his sobriety, though he may use stimulants in moderation, but a man who rigidly abstains from their use; by the term a "drunkard" is understood, not a man who drinks to intoxication, but a man who drinks at all. This confusion of terms has undoubtedly caused much misapprehension, and led to the acceptance and promulgation of very exaggerated views of the extent and intensity of the evils caused by errors in Excise Administration. That the price of liquor has, however, been seriously reduced under the outstill system in Hooghly there can be no question whatever: the remedy will be discussed further on. Mr. Westmacott's enquiry has shown that in this particular tract it is not the case, as is generally supposed, that outstill liquor is weaker than that supplied from the central distilleries. An interesting table given by him shows that, especially at outstills in the vicinity of the sudder distillery area, liquor has been manufactured of a strength considerably exceeding that of liquor formerly supplied from the distilleries, while it is nevertheless sold at a much lower price. At Sarenga, for instance, in the head-quarters sub-division of Howrah, the strength of the liquor was found to vary from 18° to 15° under proof, and the price from 6 annas to 10 annas per bottle; while the three shops which this outstill has replaced sold, in 1886-87, liquor not stronger than 28° under proof at one rupee per bottle. Generally he finds that in the Hooghly sub-division and in Serampore there is no material difference between the strength of distillery and that of outstill liquor. In the Howrah sub-division outstill liquor is considerably stronger than the distillery liquor, but the outstills probably distil strong liquor to be smuggled into the urban areas of Howrah and Calcutta. The fact, however, that the cheaper liquor of the outstills is yet as strong as the old liquor of the sudder distillery is an undoubted element in producing increased consumption.

The evidence which Mr. Westmacott has obtained appears to support his conclusion that "the cheapening of liquor has not induced its use among classes who previously abstained from it; and in the classes which previously drank, the number of individuals who use liquor has not been proved to have greatly increased: still less is it proved that there is more drunkenness." He does not find that the allegations that habits of drinking have spread among women, among schoolboys, among persons of the higher classes, or among land-holding peasants, are accurate; and his view is supported both by the statements of local witnesses and by the opinions of officials of experience. Nor does he find that, even among landless labourers, the increase in drinking at all represents an equal increase in drunkenness. It is clear, however, that such a result must follow if the reduction in the price of liquor were to be maintained; while nothing can be more obvious than that the revenue has suffered grievously by the very cause which promotes the consumption of spirits, and threatens the spread of intemperance. The Lieutenant-Governor fully concurs in Mr. Westmacott's recommendations for the imposition, by raising the upset price of the outstills, of a graduated scale of duty, beginning, on the border of the urban area, with a rate very little less than that levied at the sudder distilleries. His recommendations on the subject of limiting the capacity of stills are not equally clear and convincing. Apparently he thinks that a strict limitation will be met on the part of the abkars by having recourse to a shorter period of fermentation and using a thicker wash, which is found in distillation to produce a large amount of fusel oil, rendering the liquor unwholesome. He would therefore forego the attempt to limit the size of the stills and vats. In this view, the Lieutenant-Governor cannot concur. Unless the experiment of limiting their capacity, or, in other words, of restricting the amount of proof spirit to be distilled in a month in each outstill, can be successfully carried out, Sir Steuart Bayley is unable to see how the outstill system can fail to degenerate into one under which the outstill-holder becomes a farmer pure and simple, with full power and every inducement to cheapen his liquor and increase the consumption thereof to the utmost possible extent. The mere raising of his upset price will not remedy this. It will diminish his profits in the first instance, but this will only push him, by every device, legitimate and illegitimate, to seek more customers. The attempt, through the medium of an upset price, to assimilate the duty paid by the outstill holder on every gallon of liquor manufactured by him, with the still-head duty paid at the sudder distillery, is manifestly nullified when the outstill-holder has it in his power to increase his outturn ad libitum, and thereby reduce the duty paid on each gallon; and under Mr. Westmacott's proposal he would have this power to an extent unrestricted by anything but the limits within which his capital and enterprise would enable him to push his sales. In fact, the system approximates perilously to that which the Excise Commission specially condemned and desired to exterminate. The Lieutenant-Governor is not blind to the dangers pointed out by Mr. Westmacott, as well as by the Commission, but he must insist on the safeguards of limited capacity in the stills, and a similar, though, in proportion, a somewhat less restricted, capacity in the vats, so as to avoid the temptation to too short fermentation, being given a full and fair trial, for it is his present opinion that, unless by this or some other means the outturn of liquor from an outstill can in practice be restricted, it will be exceedingly difficult, if not impossible, to justify the continued retention of the system.

The Lieutenant-Governor agrees with Mr. Westmacott in his views as to the expediency of fixing a more adequate minimum price also. The Board will be asked to give careful attention to these suggestions before the next settlements, and to report upon the suggestion, which at first sight does not commend itself to the Lieutenant-Governor, that the excise detective establishments should be placed under the regular Police Administration of the district.

7. As has been stated above, the Lieutenant-Governor is not at present prepared to pronounce finally upon the system or systems to be adopted in Bengal; but with the removal of outstills from objectionable sites, a real and practical limitation in the supply of liquor, an increase in its cost by the imposition of higher rates of fees, and an increase in the minimum price to be charged, it may confidently be hoped that the grounds of complaint, which have been most reasonably put forward in Hooghly and Howrah, will cease to exist. Mr. Westmacott's enquiry, however, indicates distinctly, in the interests both of public morality and of the State revenue, the need of examining the administration of the outstill system in other districts in the light of the conclusions which he has established. He remarks :—" Consumption has been allowed to increase, while excise revenue has been sacrificed by the policy of dealing with each district separately, and by permitting unnecessary differences in the incidence of duty on liquor in adjoining tracts." The whole scope of his report tends to support the opinion, which is held by many high authorities, that the administration of Excise in Bengal should, as in other Provinces, be placed under the charge of a special officer, whose duty would be to visit every district, and examine and direct the operations of the department in personal communication with the local officers. This question is under reference to the Government of India in connection with Mr. Buckland's report of his enquiry in Madras and Bombay. Meanwhile, Mr. Westmacott, on being relieved of his present appointment of Commissioner of the Burdwan Division, will be placed on special duty under the Board of Revenue, and charged with the supervision of the approaching Excise settlements.

8. In conclusion, the Lieutenant-Governor desires to thank Mr. Westmacott for the thoroughness and impartiality of his enquiry, and for the lucid and well-considered report in which he has embodied its results.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

COLMAN MACAULAY,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

FLOODS IN THE DISTRICT OF MIDNAPORE.

THE following papers are published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated the 16th October 1888.

No. 40RG, dated Burdwan, the 2nd October 1888.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, Esq., Offg. Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN continuation of my No. 28RG of the 11th ultimo, I have the honour to forward copy of Mr. Vowell's report (his No. 3478G of the 29th September 1888) on the floods in the district of Midnapore, and to draw special attention to the part of it relating to the Contai sub-division. The engineering questions, and the eventual result of the loss of crops, may be left for future consideration; the immediate question is that of providing shelter and food for those who have been rendered houseless. Respecting this, I telegraphed to Mr. Vowell for further information, and he replies—

"Houseless, sheltered in remaining houses or in sheds or embankments, feed themselves by loans if poor." The prices of rice, which Mr. Vowell quotes, do not indicate any scarcity of food, so long as the people have wherewithal to buy it. I am telegraphing to Mr. Vowell to spend whatever is necessary to provide shelter and food for those who cannot provide for themselves, and to hire the boats he finds necessary for the officers deputed on enquiry. I approve of the measures he has taken, and request that the two Sub-Inspectors of Police whom he has deputed may be relieved by other officers deputed to perform their ordinary police duties.

I intend to visit the Contai sub-division shortly.

No. 3478, dated Midnapore, the 29th September 1888.

From—C. VOWELL, Esq., Magistrate of Midnapore,
To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

WITH reference to the telegram noted on the margin, received from the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, I have the honour to forward a report on the recent floods complete for the whole district, my last, No. 1818 of the 8th instant, having dealt principally with the Ghattal sub-division which I had then just visited.

Dated 22nd instant.

2. I have now been over the worst parts of the Contai sub-division in company with the Sub-divisional Officer, and returned through the centre of the head-quarters sub-division, which also lies under water.

3. The flooded tracts are—

(1) In Ghattal the Daspore thana and part of Ghattal thana, rather more than 100 square miles flooded by the Silye and Cossye.

(2) In Tumlook nearly the whole of Kassijora pergunnah flooded by the Cossye, 63,000 acres.

(3) In the head-quarters, part of Sobong thana and almost the whole of its outpost Mainah, 106 square miles.

This area was flooded partly from the Kaliaghai river bursting a zemindary embankment, and partly by water from the north breaking a tuccavi embankment on the Buxi khal.

(4) In Contai—

(a) The Dubda basin flooded partly by water being jammed back across the canal, the outlets to the east having silted up, 30—50 square miles.

(b) Large portions of the Bhagwanpore and Patashpore thanas, rather more than 150 square miles, flooded through defective drainage.

In the whole of these areas there has been very little immediate loss either of human life or of cattle, but the destruction of mud huts has been great, and deaths by snake-bite and of children from drowning are common. The cattle, as far as I saw, were not badly off, as there was plenty of fodder to be found among the roofs of fallen houses.

4. As regards Ghattal, the thana of Daspore has been unfortunate in losing its crops in 1885 and again in 1887, and having had only a poor one in 1886. It has, however, the compensating advantage of being able to grow a boro crop by damming up some of the rivers.

The flooded area has been plotted out into charges by the Sub-divisional Officer, who receives regular reports on the condition of the people; and as the sub-division is in close communication with Calcutta, and the labouring classes are in the constant practice of going there to work, I do not apprehend cause of anxiety. The Sub-divisional Officer received Rs. 200 from a former flood fund, and distributed a part of it in rice, when the first rush of the water rendered it difficult to obtain provisions. The last advices from him continue favourable. The kaimonto was being resown where possible, boro planted for seedlings, and labourers going away in large bodies for work.

5. In Tumlook, the Kassijora pergunnah suffered the heaviest loss, but in other parts damage was also done. In Kassijora boro can be resown. The pergunnah was badly flooded last year, but afterwards reaped a good boro crop.

A Committee to relieve distress has been started and a small subscription raised. The Sub-divisional Officer reports that some applications for loans under the Agricultural Loans Act have been made. The population of the sub-division is fairly well-to-do, and many of the labourers emigrate every year for work during the cold season. The case of this sub-division will be sufficiently met by private charity and by loans under the Act.

6. In the Sobong thana of the head-quarters sub-division the floods are said to have risen 1½ feet above previous record, and it is marvellous there was no loss of life. Even now, after it has fallen 7 feet, the water is high on the villages. The cattle driven on to the tops of the embankments were said in places to have been standing belly deep in water. The loss of houses here, it is needless to say, is great.

The Mainah pergunnah is a very fertile one, and in a report on the last flood in 1885, it is stated that, the people say of it, one crop in five is sufficient to support the population. Previous to 1885 there had been a number of good seasons. The water will run off in October as the Kaliaghai falls; and I have requested the Executive Engineer to make further cuts in the embankment without calling for security in order to facilitate this. Boro can be grown to a small extent and winter crops, such as onions, kalai-bhaunt and til on the homestead patches.

The Canoongoe has been engaged during the week in receiving applications and making the necessary enquiries under the Agricultural Loans Act, and 400 petitions for loans have already been put in; the embankments have been extensively breached, and the expenditure on them must be large. The work is done by local labour, and I have asked the Executive Engineer to start repairs as soon as possible.

The people were already repairing their houses with mud, which had to be transported from distances in boats.

The part of the sub-division will, for the present, be watched by Baboo Bissessur Banerjee, Deputy Collector, who has a thorough knowledge of the district, and by the Canoongoe; but I do not think anything beyond private charitable relief will be necessary.

7. In Contai we have first the Dubda basin. Little need be said of it except to express a hope that a remedy may be found, as the sluices through the canal intended for its protection have only aggravated the mischief. The entire crop has been destroyed, and the water is still standing. Boro cannot be grown here, but there was a good crop last year, and there have been no floods for the previous ten. Relief will not therefore be necessary.

8. The most serious case is that of the Bangwanpore and Pattaspore thanas of this sub-division. Here there is a lake of water as far as the eye can reach. Even the homestead patches are submerged, and the houses are in many cases either fallen or half under water.

A good deal of the land is held by the ryots of estates at present under Government management, and you are aware from previous reports how this area has been long suffering from destruction of its drainage channels consequent on the silting back of the rivers. Large tracts of the land have borne no crop for three or four years, and are becoming covered with rushes and water weed, showing that the water stands throughout the year. The rim of the basin has this year been much extended by the heavy rains which found no outlet, and the water has deepened so considerably as to destroy houses even on elevated sites.

There is no prospect of any crop, nor of any earthwork in the immediate neighbourhood, and the mahajans are naturally enough withholding loans, there being no visible security or prospect of any. Harvesting in other districts will not commence till December, nor can much be done on roads or embankments locally before the middle of November at earliest.

9. The prospect, therefore, is serious; and if the Engineering Department find no immediate remedy, and the people do not emigrate en masse, widespread measures of relief will shortly become necessary. The Sub-divisional Officer, as you are aware, proposed to spend Rs. 18,000 a month on gratuitous relief, the only form possible, basing his calculation on 90 villages with a population of 16,000 requiring maintenance.

After going over the ground with him, I do not think this expenditure to be immediately necessary. The people are of course much depressed by the outlook, but there were no signs of lack of food, and the villages seemed to contain the ordinary proportion of well-nourished persons. The children indeed seemed rather above than below the average. They have been selling their cattle largely at low prices, as it is impossible to keep them under the circumstances. Those that remained were in fair condition.

There was no general cry for food, although people crowded round petitioning to have the water drained away.

We met the Agent of the Contai Relief Committee. Only a small sum had been given him, and he had distributed some 20 maunds of rice. We saw the Pattaspore zemindar and respectable persons of the neighbourhood. From none of these did I gather that relief was urgent. I had also placed Rs. 200 in the hands of the Sub-divisional Officer, but up to date nothing had been expended. The pinch, if it comes, will be from the end of October till the middle of December.

When urged to go away to seek work, the reply of the men was that they could not leave their families now without any roof to cover their heads. But in the end, the destruction of the houses may turn out to be rather fortunate than otherwise, as having no funds to rebuild it may compel them to move off in search of a kindlier soil, instead of lingering on in a state of semi-starvation.

When charity or relief comes, I would, therefore, deprecate its application to the rebuilding of any dwellings in this submerged country.

10. For the present, I have placed the Sub-Deputy Collector in immediate charge of this area. He will be assisted by two Sub-Managers of the Khas Tehsil Department and by two Sub-Inspectors of Police. I would request your sanction to the immediate employment of two other Sub-Inspectors to carry on the ordinary thana work. I propose these officers, because they know and are known to the people. They will therefore obtain reliable information more easily, and their presence will not lead to any general cry for assistance.

My instructions have been to them to move constantly about, making unobtrusive enquiries into the condition of the poorer classes, and noting where relief is likely to be first required, and advising the people to move off in search of work. They have also to find out where any boro can be grown, and, if necessary, offer Government loans under the Act, and to assist traders in transporting grain for sale to outlying villages.

Three boats will be necessary for this staff at a cost of Rs. 70 a month, and I also request authority to spend up to Rs. 5,000 in anticipation of sanction in case any urgent and unforeseen necessity may arise. I shall myself again visit this part in a month, and the Sub-divisional Officer will go there shortly before me.

11. In conclusion, I have to report that the crops, where not damaged by floods, promised to be good over the whole district.

Prices rose about 2 seers the rupee in the flooded tracts the week after the flood, but fell again almost immediately. They now stand as noted in the magin, and grain is being exported to Calcutta. As you will remember, prices were very low during the cold weather, and the ryots held back their stocks waiting for a rise.

With the exception of the Contai subdivision, the health of the people has not yet suffered. In Contai fever has been and is very bad, but this is not primarily due to the floods under report. Special supplies of febrifuge have been asked for.

The District Board has been asked to start earthwork at as early a date as possible; and I request that similar instructions may be given to the Public Works Department as regards the embankments.

A meeting will be held on the 3rd proximo to obtain subscriptions.

No. 200TR, dated Darjeeling, the 13th October 1888.

From—H. W. C. CARNDUFF, Esq., C.S., Under-Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal, Revenue Department,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 40RG, dated the 2nd October 1888, submitting copy of a report from the Collector of Midnapore, regarding the floods in that district, and in reply to say that the Lieutenant-Governor approves your action in authorising Mr. Vowell to incur the expenditure necessary for providing shelter and food for those unable to provide for themselves, and for hiring boats for the use of the officers deputed on special enquiries. Orders on your proposal for the deputation of additional police officers, to relieve the two sub inspectors engaged by the orders of the Collector in these enquiries, will be issued from the Judicial (Police) Department of this office.

2. The Irrigation Department of this Government has been requested to take into its early consideration paragraphs 6, 7, 9 and 11 of Mr. Vowell's report which relate to that Department.

3. I am to request that you will submit a further report after your visit to Contai.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, DURING THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER 1888.

THE weather conditions in Bengal during September are generally similar to those of the previous monsoon months. The south-west monsoon continues to bring up large amounts of aqueous vapour, and during the earlier weeks of the month the rainfall, more especially in the western districts, is partly due to the Bombay branch of the monsoon current, though the greater part of the rainfall is undoubtedly brought up by the current blowing from the Bay of Bengal. The Bombay branch, however, gives way earlier than that from the Bay of Bengal, and from the second or the third week it ceases to influence Bengal. The Bay of Bengal branch also weakens during September, particularly during the latter half of the month, and at its close it almost withdraws from the province, and thus the rainfall in September in Bengal is decidedly smaller than in July and August, and the decrease is also greater in the western districts than elsewhere, from the cessation of the Bombay monsoon current comparatively early in the month.

The intermittent character of the monsoon rainfall has been frequently pointed out in previous summaries. Each heavy burst of rainfall appears to exhaust for the time being the supplies of aqueous vapour available for condensation. Hence, after each such burst, the monsoon current falls off, and appears to die away in and near its normal limits. Local variable winds set in over the Gangetic plain and extend eastwards. This goes on until the moisture current in the rear accumulates fresh supplies of aqueous vapour and renewed energy, when it again advances and gives general rain. The majority of these advances accompany a certain amount of atmospheric disturbance, which frequently takes the form of small moving depressions or cyclonic circulations or storms. These usually occur near the front of the increasing monsoon current, or near its limits of retreat. Hence these depressions may originate either over the land or the sea, according to the strength and other conditions of the monsoon current at the time. The chief meteorological features of the month are usually the depressions which introduce and accompany the bursts of rain. Their place of formation, the rapidity with which they follow one another, and the total amount of rain they give, depend mainly upon the strength of the monsoon current itself, whilst the directions which the depressions pursue, and the local distribution of rainfall, are determined by the local meteorological conditions prevalent during their formation and existence.

Normal distribution of rainfall.—The average distribution of rainfall for the month of September depends mainly upon the geographical relations of the province to the Bay of Bengal monsoon current, which are similar to those of the preceding month. The withdrawal of the Bombay branch westward deprives a portion of the province (chiefly the western districts) of one of its sources of rainfall, and also somewhat alters the conditions and relation of the province to the other branch. Hence the average distribution of the month of September differs, more especially in the western districts, considerably from that of the two preceding months of July and August.

The average rainfall of the month exceeds 20 inches in the districts at the foot of the hills in North Bengal. Between this area and a line running west and east through Bagdogra, and also in a small area in East Bengal, including Fenny and Noakholly, the mean rainfall varies between 15 and 20 inches. Between these areas and a curved line defined by the stations of Bettiah, Durbhunga, Bhagulpore, Godda, Berhampore, Goalundo, Manickgunge, Bagirhat, Diamond Harbour, Kendrapara and Pooree, and thus including the greater part of North-East and South-West Bengal and the northern districts of North Behar, the average rain is from 10 to 15 inches. In the area to the south and west of this line, including the whole of Behar, except the most northern portions, the northern and central districts of South-West Bengal, the Sonthal Pergunnahs, Chutia Nagpur, and the western districts of Orissa, the average rainfall is less than 10 inches, and ranges between 6 and 10 inches. The greater part of South-West Bengal and Chutia Nagpur, within this area, has an average varying from 8 to 10 inches. The average rainfall of the month is least in the Patna, Gya and Shahabad districts of South Behar, and in a small area in South-West Bengal, including the stations of Magoorah, Bongong, Ranaghat, Krishnaghur and Culna. In these districts the average rainfall very slightly exceeds 6 inches, and ranges between 6 and 7 inches.

Meteorology of the month.—It will be remembered that during August the weather was very disturbed, the variations of pressure during that month were large, and cyclonic storms of very considerable intensity were experienced at different times during the month. These conditions ceased with August, and during September the weather was much finer and more settled. Small storms, however, such as are usually formed over the Bay during the prevalence of the south-west monsoon, occurred on two occasions, and there occurred a storm which, to all appearance, was formed outside the Indian area in the Gulf of Tonquin, and which subsequently passed across the Siam Peninsula and entered the Andaman Sea.

The past month has been characterised by moderate general rainfall. In North Bengal and North Behar, indeed, there was some considerable deficiency, the total rainfall of the month in those two districts amounting to only 55 per cent. and 65 per cent. respectively of the normal fall, but in the other districts the fall was larger, varying between 70 per cent. and 89 per cent. of the usual amount received. The deficiency of rainfall though slight, and, as has been shown, generally unimportant, has been remarkably general. Throughout the whole province, only four stations exhibit an excess, and of these Midnapore is the only one where the excess is of any importance. All the other stations throughout Bengal show a deficiency ranging from as much as 13 inches at Julpigoree to less than half an inch at Manbhoom.

influence on the winds at any station beyond those in its immediate neighbourhood. Moderate rain accompanied it, and the weather was very cloudy. On the 2nd the depression still occupied the same position, and the winds and weather in its neighbourhood were unaltered. It passed inland on the 3rd and filled up.

Depression of 5th to 7th.—On the 5th, pressure was falling fast in the north-east corner of the Bay, and an area of relatively low pressure existed between Akyab and the mouth of the Megna. Rain was falling on the eastern side of the Bay from Chittagong southwards, while in Bengal and on the west side of the Bay (due to the northerly winds on the western side of the depression) the weather was fine. By the morning of the 6th the depression had intensified considerably, and had at the same time travelled westward towards the Orissa coast. The barometer had fallen slightly around the head and west of the Bay, while it had risen rather briskly in the east. A fairly well-marked cyclonic circulation of the winds existed around the centre of depression, and moderate rain was falling in Orissa and South-West Bengal. By the next morning, the 7th, the storm had passed inland, the barometer had risen, and the weather had assumed its normal monsoon characteristics. Balasore reported 4¼ inches, Dacca 2⅔ inches, and Puri 1¼ inch of rain.

Depression of the 12th to 16th.—The final, and by far the most important, storm of the month was much more interesting and more extensive than either of the two preceding ones, which were of the ordinary monsoon type. On the 10th and 11th the reports showed a steadily falling barometer over Tenasserim and the Gulf of Martaban, and a steady north-westerly wind over Burma. On the 12th the wind had shifted to north-east at Moulmein and Rangoon, and a slight depression was shown around Tavoy. On the following day a very rapid barometric fall occurred over Tenasserim and Lower Burma, and it appeared that a depression was crossing the Eastern Peninsula from the Gulf of Siam. This storm travelled quickly across the Gulf of Martaban, so far as can be judged, developing quickly as it did so. On the morning of the 14th the centre lay to the north of Diamond Island, and a gale of wind prevailed over Lower Burma. On the 15th the centre probably lay in about lat. 18° N and long 90° E. It was advancing quickly west-north-west, but as only the coast observations are at present available, it is difficult to locate the centre exactly. The observations of the succeeding day showed that the storm must have crossed the Bay at a rate of about 20 miles per hour. Its centre crossed the Orissa coast near Puri, where at 8 A.M., some time probably after the actual moment of passage, the barometer was as low as 29·34 inches. Heavy rain was experienced all around the head of the Bay.

This storm subsequently travelled west-north-west and north-west as far as North-Western India, and gave exceedingly heavy rain to a very large part of Northern India. The storm was an exceedingly interesting one, not only on account of the exceptional rapidity with which it crossed the Bay, and the length of time during which it existed after it crossed the coast, but more particularly on account of its apparent place of origin. The existing evidence tends to show that the storm originated in the Gulf of Tonquin and crossed the narrow peninsula separating that Gulf from the Andaman Sea. If such be the case, it is the first recorded instance of the kind.

Pressure—Though considerably reduced during the passage across the Bay of the abovementioned depression, has been generally somewhat above the normal average of the month. During the first week of the month, pressure over Bengal and the Bay was subject to both local and general irregular oscillations, but the final result showed an excess for the whole of Bengal and for Assam. During the first three days of the following week, viz., the 8th, 9th and 10th, the barometer continued to indicate an excess of pressure, but on Tuesday, the 11th, a fall set in which continued briskly, and by Friday, the 14th, brought pressure below the normal of the time of year. This depression of the barometer lasted until the cyclonic storm (noticed above) reached the land, after which pressure rose fast and was above the average until near the close of the month, when it fell again to about the normal.

Temperature.—During the present month the rainfall of Northern Bengal having been slightly deficient, temperature has been slightly in excess. Elsewhere the variations of the mean temperature from the normal have been slight and unimportant. The temperature all over the province and over Assam has been very uniform, the range (excluding Chutia Nagpur) being only slightly more than 1°. Assam had the highest maximum, North Bengal the lowest minimum during the month.

Rainfall—Speaking generally, the greater part of the rainfall of the past month fell during the first half of the month, the latter part, after the passage of the concluding cyclone, having been fairly fine over the greater part of the province. Fairly general rain fell over the whole province on the first day of the month, but consequent on the appearance of northerly winds due to the feeble storm in the north of the Bay, there was a partial break in the rains between the 2nd and 5th. Subsequently as the storm passed westward, and southerly and south-westerly monsoon winds again established themselves throughout the province, rather heavy rain recommenced and fell during the 6th and 7th. Between the 8th and 14th there occurred a partial cessation in the rains. All districts, except North Behar, reported a defect during this week, but the weather was showery, and several heavy local falls were reported. Falls of 5 inches were reported during the week from Mymensingh and Dhubri, and of from 2 to 2½ inches from East and North Bengal. During the next seven days, the 15th to 21st, the rainfall was in excess of the average in Orissa and South-West Bengal, and slightly deficient elsewhere. In Orissa the fall was exceptionally heavy. During the remainder of the month the weather, undisturbed by any depressions from the Bay, was fine, and the rainfall throughout the province comparatively slight.

The following table, which includes the above figures, gives a comparison between the actual monthly and total rainfall, and the normal rainfall of the province up to the end of September, in which same form also has been compiled in the previous monthly abstracts condensed summary of the rainfall data of the present year for each meteorological division. The first nine columns give the percentage amount of rainfall received in each month, and the last column the percentage rainfall of the whole period from the 1st of January to the end of September:—

Meteorological Division.	January.	February.	March.	April.	May.	June.	July.	August.	September.	Actual rainfall of first nine months of 1888 expressed as a percentage of the normal fall for the period.

Chutia Nagpur .	235	104	5	24	39	30	128	134	81	99

From this table it will be seen that for six of the meteorological divisions the actual rainfall of the first nine months of the present year equals or exceeds the normal average, and that at one only, viz., North Bengal, is there any deficiency. In Orissa, where the rains in the early monsoon were so deficient, there is now only a deficiency of 13 per cent. for the five months May to September.

The following table gives full data for the comparison of the actual and the normal rainfall of the month of September in all districts of the province. The figures are derived in the manner explained in preceding monthly summaries. The first column gives the average district rainfall as determined from the rainfall observations of the past 15 years. The second column gives the actual district rainfall as determined from the weighted actual rainfalls of the month at the reporting stations in the district. The third column expresses the ratio of the actual district rainfall to the normal district rainfall expressed as a percentage. The fourth column gives the same information as the third column in a slightly different form. It states by what percentage the actual rainfall varied in excess (+) or in defect (—) from the normal rainfall:—

CALCUTTA, the 16*th October* 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 12TH OF OCTOBER 1888.

THE meteorological changes of the past week have been very important. Not only has a largish depression advanced from the Bay over Bengal and given very unsettled weather to a very considerable part of the province, but following on the disappearance of this depression there has occurred a barometric increase, the distribution of which has been such as to entirely change the conditions prevailing over Bengal and the Bay, and to produce strongly marked cold weather conditions. So long as pressure is relatively low in the Gangetic Valley, and relatively high in the south of the Bay, air from the Bay passes into Bengal in the shape of southerly winds, and so long as these conditions exist, cyclonic storms and rain travelling in the same direction are always liable to occur; but as soon as these conditions of pressure are reversed, and readings become relatively high in Bengal and low over the Bay, the wind changes to north and north-east, and the probability of storms or rain becomes very small.

The report of the 6th showed that the cyclonic storm, noticed in last week's summary, was approaching the coast on a north-east course, and that at 10 A.M. the centre lay to the east of Saugor Island; northerly to north-westerly winds prevailed over the whole of the western districts of the province; easterly winds in East Bengal, and south-easterly winds at Chittagong and Commilla The winds were rather strong at the head of the Bay. During the night of the 6th the storm crossed the coast, and at 10 A.M. on the 7th the centre lay a little to the north-east of Dacca. The wind had shifted to west over the greater part of the province, but an irregular cyclonic circulation existed around the centre of the storm. Heavy rain had fallen in its path. On the 8th there was a general recovery of pressure, and conditions assumed their normal monsoon appearance, but this condition did not hold, as pressure rose steadily at the more northern stations, and only slightly in the south; hence the area of highest pressure was gradually developed along the foot of the hills, and northerly and north-easterly winds slowly extended over the province with fine weather and a steadily decreasing humidity.

Pressure—Was almost everywhere below the normal average on the first day of the week. The defect was greatest (over 0·1 inch) at Saugor Island and Calcutta, but was considerable everywhere. On the 7th, owing to the passage inland of the storm noticed above, the relative distribution of pressure changed. In Orissa there was some little excess as compared with the normal, while the greatest defect, instead of being shown near Calcutta, was reported from the neighbourhood of Dacca and from Assam. On the 8th pressure was still below the normal average at most stations, but the defect was decreasing, and by the succeeding morning had been changed into an excess in the majority of districts. This excess became universal and large, and lasted until the close of the week.

Temperature.—The variations of temperature from the normal were irregular on the first day of the week, but during that day a general fall occurred, as the report of the following morning showed a large abnormal coolness throughout the whole province. During the 8th, 9th and 10th this defect of temperature held steadily, but at the close of the week the thermometer rose, and though the mean temperature did not exceed the normal average except at a few stations, the large defect previously noticed more or less disappeared. The greatest mean defect was in Orissa and South-West Bengal.

Winds—Were cyclonic at the commencement of the week. They subsequently became very variable, and at the close of the period there were strong indications of the setting in of the north-easterly current which is characteristic of the cold season.

Rainfall.—No rain fell during the week in Chutia Nagpur, and none of any importance in Behar or Orissa. Elsewhere rain was fairly general during the first two days of the week, but after the 7th the fall practically ceased, and only slight local showers were experienced. The heaviest rainfall occurred in the path of the storm, and the only district reporting an excess is East Bengal. The following are the more important falls:—

Humidity and cloud.—The humidity and cloud proportion were high at the commencement of the week, but with the disappearance of cyclonic conditions the sky cleared.

Weather.—In the more western districts of the province the weather has been fine throughout. In the east the first two days were very unsettled, but as the barometer rose, and the storm broke up, the weather improved, and by the close of the week had assumed a settled appearance, with seemingly a promise of an early cold weather.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 12th of October 1888 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

2. (1) If before or on the hearing of an appeal under section 217 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, any question of law or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document, which construction may affect the merits, arises, on which the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay entertains reasonable doubt, the Chief Judge may, either of his own motion or on the application of either or any of the parties, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement, with his own opinion on the point, for the decision of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay.

(2) When a reference is made to the High Court under sub-section (1), the provisions of sections 618 to 621, both inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes and to the High Court, respectively. (1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay from a decision passed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay under section 503 or section 504 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, when the amount of the claim in respect of which the decision is passed exceeds two thousand rupees.

(2) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure with respect to appeals from original decrees shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to appeals under sub-section (1), and orders passed therein by the High Court may, on application to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes, be executed by him as if they were decrees made by himself. XIV of 18

PART VI.

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 12th October, 1888:

No. 16 of 1888.

A Bill to make further provision for the Administration of the Estate of His late Majesty the King of Oudh.

WHEREAS Act XIX of 1887 (an Act to provide for the Administration of the Estate of His late Majesty the King of Oudh) enacts that the Governor General in Council shall have exclusive authority to act in the administration of the property of whatever nature left by His late Majesty the King of Oudh in regard to the settlement and satisfaction of claims against the estate of His late Majesty, and may make distribution of the remaining property or the proceeds thereof in such manner as he deems fit among the family and dependents of His late Majesty; and whereas it is expedient to provide for the mode in which property may be transferred, and suits and other proceedings may be instituted, in the course of the administration of the estate of His late Majesty;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Transfers of property by and to the Agent to the Governor General in Council, and institution of legal proceedings by him.

1. Subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, the person for the time being holding the office of Agent to the Governor General in Council for the Affairs of the late King of Oudh and for the Purposes of Act XIX of 1887 may—

(a) in his own name and by his name of office dispose of any moveable or immoveable property of His late Majesty the King of Oudh in as full and effectual a manner as His Majesty could have disposed of it in his lifetime;

(b) by his name of office take a conveyance of any moveable or immoveable property in which His late Majesty had a beneficial interest; and

(c) by his name of office institute any suit or other proceeding in any Civil, Criminal or Revenue Court in connection with the possession of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the estate of His late Majesty or the dispossession of any person of any such property, or the recovery of rents, debts or other moneys due to the estate, or otherwise in connection with the administration of the estate.

Consequences ensuing on death, resignation or removal of Agent.

2. On the departure from British India, or the death, resignation or removal, of an Agent to the Governor General for the Affairs and Purposes aforesaid, the following consequences shall ensue, namely:

(a) any moveable or immoveable property vested in him as such Agent shall become vested in his successor in office, and

(b) a suit or other proceeding instituted by his name of office may be continued by his successor in office in the same manner as if the departure or the death, resignation or removal had not occurred.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to remove any doubts which may exist as to the extent of the powers which have been conferred on the Governor General in Council by Act XIX of 1887.

As much immoveable property belonging to the estate of the late King of Oudh has to be disposed of, it is desirable that there should be no room for question as to the nature of the title which the Governor General in Council, as administrator of the estate of His late Majesty, may, by his Agent, transfer.

DISCIPLINE.

SECTION XVII.—CANTONMENTS.

I.—General Rules. | II.—Grant of Land.

* * * * *

I.—General Rules.

(BENGAL AND BOMBAY.)

Cantonment rules and regulations to be strictly enforced.

1919. The rules and regulations laid down by Government for the administration of military cantonments are to be strictly carried out in the cantonment to which they are applicable. A copy of all such rules and regulations in English and in the vernacular language chiefly in use is to be hung up in some conspicuous part of the office of the Cantonment Magistrate, or in such place as the Local Government or the Commanding Officer may direct.

* * * * *

Limits of cantonments to be defined.

1921. The limits of all military cantonments are to be defined by pillars of masonry, erected at each angle of the boundary line, and which are to be replaced whenever they have been destroyed or are not forthcoming.

1922. The boundaries of sadr, station and thrown down and the ruins and fences removed at the expense of the proprietor or persons by whom they were erected.

Deviations from fixed limits prohibited.

1923. No deviation from the fixed limits of a cantonment is permitted without the sanction of Government, to be applied for through the Quartermaster General's department; no alteration of the limits of lines, bázárs or compounds can be made without the authority of the Commander-in-chief.

Disposal of useless ground.

1924. In Bengal, when from any cause any portion of land which has been taken up for military purposes is found to be no longer required for such, a report to that effect is to be made by the Commanding Officer to the Quartermaster General in order that it may be made over to the civil authorities.

Houses to be numbered.

1927. Officers commanding stations have authority to direct that numbers be affixed to houses or compounds in cantonments, the expense being borne by the owner or by the cantonment fund, and not by Government, save for buildings actually used for public purposes or the property of Government. Residents may also be directed to affix their names and designations on their houses, compound walls or gateways.

Residents to affix their names

Excavations in cantonments.

1928. Residents in military cantonments are prohibited from making excavations on any ground within the boundaries, except those made by permission to furnish materials for building, which are to be filled up again, when no longer required, at the expense of the individual concerned.

* * * * * *

Officers to perform duties connected with cantonments.

1935. All matters connected with cantonment lands and boundaries will be conducted, under the orders of the Commanding Officer, by the officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, in his absence, by the Cantonment Magistrate or the Staff Officer of the station, assisted, if necessary, by the Executive Engineer. Questions requiring the decision of higher authority are to be referred to head-quarters through the Quartermaster General (paragraph 2505, section XXII).

Rent or Sale of Private Buildings.

Officers and others who have a prior right to houses in cantonments.

1936. A military cantonment is, as its designation implies, a locality set apart primarily for military and medical officers, chaplains, soldiers, subordinates attached to the troops, and the officers and subordinates of all departments connected with the housing and supplies of the troops, for whom houses situated within such limits are by priority of right available. Regimental officers are required ordinarily to live near the barracks or lines of their respective corps.

1937. Civil and political officers of Government and non-military residents of cantonments whenever the public interest may require that they should so reside, or whenever special grounds may exist for granting the indulgence, such as the want of other available shelter, or the necessity of ensuring their personal safety; but these exceptions are not ordinarily to interfere with the priority of right possessed by military officers or others on duty at the station to the houses within its boundaries.

Procedure in ejectment of non-military residents.

1938. In the event of a house in cantonments occupied by a non-military resident being required for an officer, a formal notice should be served on the occupant requiring him to vacate by a certain date, and warning him that, in the event of his declining or failing to comply, legal proceedings will be taken to enforce compliance. Should the notice (which should be personally served if possible) fail of effect, intimation of the same should be forwarded to the Local Government in order that the necessary steps may be taken in the matter. Commanding Officers should not, however, have recourse to this measure except under the most unavoidable circumstances, when houses are legally claimable and absolutely necessary for the accommodation of officers whose services are actually required in the station, and for whom shelter is not available within a fairly reasonable distance of their duty. In the case of officials mentioned in paragraph 1937, applications for their removal are to be made to the Commander-in-chief through the Quartermaster General for submission to Government.

Ejection not to be resorted to excepting under most unavoidable circumstances.

Committees of arbitration to be assembled when disputes arise regarding rent or sale of houses.

1939. The owner of any house in a military cantonment not occupied by a person belonging to the army on duty at the station, or by a person directed or authorised by Government to reside therein (paragraph 1937), may be required to rent the same to any military officer belonging to the station who may require it to reside in if the officer commanding the station is satisfied that there is no other suitable house available with due regard to the rank of the claimant and to the duties he may have to perform. In every such case, however, if the owner may have formerly intimated to the officer who has so obtained the house his desire to sell rather than to let it and the offer has not been accepted, the officer may at any time be required to vacate it within a week of his receiving notice through the Staff Officer of the station that the house has, with the consent of the Commanding Officer of the station, been sold to another military officer on duty at the station who requires it for his own residence. The rent to be paid in such cases, or the price to be paid for the house when the claimant accedes to the owner's desire that he shall purchase it, is to be fixed, in the event of the parties disagreeing as to the amount, by a committee of arbitration to be assembled by order of the Officer Commanding the division or district, after he has fully satisfied himself as to

The Cantonments Bill.

(The Second Schedule.—Extracts from Section XVII (Cantonments), Volume II (Discipline), Army Regulations, India.)

Owner to elect whether he will rent or sell.

1940. In all cases of dispute the owner should be called upon, previous to the assembly of the committee of arbitration, to elect whether he will rent or sell his house: should he elect to rent the house, the committee cannot compel him to sell it.

Houses to be let by the month only.

1941. Houses situated within the limits of military cantonments that may be declared to be for hire can only, according to these Regulations and customs, be let by the month.

Reduction of rent not claimable by tenants.

1942. A tenant who has once taken possession of a house, or who is occupying it, cannot appeal for any reduction of rent which he may have agreed to pay, nor can a committee be assembled to arbitrate on this point.

Composition of committees.

1943. Committees of arbitration are to be composed of a civil officer (the principal one, if practicable, at or in the vicinity of the station), the Commanding Officer of the cantonment, and any other individual (who need not belong to either the civil or military services) whom the proprietor of the house may please to nominate. When the Commanding Officer of the station is an interested party, the next senior officer is to be nominated one of the committee in his stead.

Transfers of houses on relief.

1944. When a house is transferred from one officer to another on the occasion of a relief, and a difference arises as to terms, the price or rent is to be fixed by a committee constituted as above, with an additional member to be nominated by the intending occupant or purchaser.

Decision of committee is final.

1945. In the case referred to in paragraph 1939 the decision of the committee of arbitration is to be conclusive, unless it be reversed by Government, for whose orders the proceedings are to be submitted through the regular channel whenever the proprietor of the premises is dissatisfied with the award; but in the case referred to in paragraph 1944 there is no appeal from the decision of the committee, which is to be final.

Notice of committee's assembly to be given to owner.

1946. Due notice must in every instance be given to proprietors of premises, or to their agents, by the Commanding Officer of the cantonment, of the intention to hold a committee thereon; and, in the event of the owner or agent neglecting to nominate a member of such committee after having received the notice,—which, if the owner or agent be a non-resident in the cantonment or its vicinity, is to be taken to mean an official notification dated one month prior to the day on which the committee is to assemble,—the Commanding Officer will, under the orders of the

No claim to special allotment on return from leave, &c.

1947. When an officer to whom a house in cantonments has been specially allotted under these Regulations may choose, on going away on leave or on temporary duty, to give it up, he has no right to claim the special allotment of a house on his return, under the provisions of paragraph 1939, should a suitable one not be at the time available for rent. In the event of any special circumstances rendering a departure from this rule necessary, the case should be referred to the Quartermaster General for the decision of the Commander-in-chief.

Procedure in case of repairs being required when landlord objects to execute them.

1948. In the event of the tenant of a house considering that the house requires repairs, and of his being unable to induce the owner to execute them, he should call on his landlord to join with him in appointing a committee of arbitration to decide the question. If the cantonment rules are in force, the committee will be composed of one civilian, the Officer Commanding the station and two officers or European residents, to be appointed, one by the landlord and the other by the occupant; otherwise the landlord should be called on to name an arbitrator to act with one to be named by the occupant, who are together to appoint a third in case of difference. In either case the landlord should be informed that, unless within a named time he either executes the necessary repairs or joins in the reference, the occupant will have the repairs done on the landlord's account and risk at the Public Works Departmental rates, and that the costs will be set off against the rent.

Demolition of ruined buildings.

1949. In stations where there are no cantonment committees, Commanding Officers are to obtain the sanction of Government through the Commander-in-chief previous to convening committees of arbitration for the valuation of ruined buildings which, for sanitary or other purposes, it may be considered advisable to demolish and remove.

Purchase of buildings for public purposes.

1950. In cases where buildings in cantonments are required for public purposes, the officer of the Public Works Department in executive charge will, under the authority of the Officer Commanding the division or district, settle for the valuation and purchase of the same according to the rules of the Public Works Department, and recourse is only to be had to committees of arbitration in the event of any disagreement, and on the application of the Executive Engineer or of the proprietor of the premises.

Procedure in case of renting buildings for public purposes.

1951. Whenever it may be necessary to rent buildings for the use of the troops, the officer of the Public Works Department on the spot is in all cases to arrange for the hiring of such buildings and to obtain sanction for the arrangements in communication with, and assisted by, the local accommodating the troops in any emergency, whenever this is possible, rather than to act themselves, and thus accept a grave pecuniary responsibility in the event of their action being disapproved of. When, however, the local military authorities have been obliged to act themselves, owing to the absence of the Executive Engineer from the station, it is the duty of such officer on his return to suggest to them any modification of the arrangements which his knowledge and experience might suggest as better for the soldier or more for the interest of Government, and also to submit the arrangements for sanction as if originally made by himself.

Disputes to be reported.

1952. Officers Commanding stations are required, in cases of disputes relative to houses or lands in cantonments, before taking action thereon, to submit the same with their opinion for the consideration and approval of the General Officer in local command, who will transmit them to the Quartermaster General if he is unable to decide them himself.

Mosques, &c., not to be occupied.

1953. On no account is any church, chapel, mosque, temple, tomb or other building devoted to religious use to be occupied as a dwelling-house or for any other purpose without the full and free consent of the persons interested in it and the sanction of the principal civil or political authority in the spot.

(BOMBAY.)

Cantonment limits.

1954. The limits of cantonments or bázárs shall be marked by the local Magistrate or Political Agent and Commanding Officer in conjunction; in marking out the limits of new cantonments private property is not to be included therein.

Report and plan to be prepared.

1955. When the local Magistrate and Commanding Officer shall, in conjunction, have marked the limits, a report and plan thereof are to be signed by both these officers and submitted through the Quartermaster General for the approval of Government and for publication. When approved in General Orders, the limits are then to be marked by pillars or in some other equally permanent manner.

Changes to be registered.

1956. A plan of every cantonment so marked and signed will be kept in the Quartermaster General's office, where it will be duly registered, and a copy thereof, with a register of enclosures, will be furnished by the Divisional or District Assistant Quartermaster General to each Brigadier or Station Commanding Officer, who is to report to divisional headquarters all changes in boundaries or occupations as they occur. All such changes are to be reported by the Divisional Assistant to the Quartermaster General, to enable him to correct the registers and standard plans in his office.

Alteration of limits.

1957. Whenever an alteration may be required in any part of the limits of a cantonment which have been regularly marked out and published in General Orders, which will be considered to supersede and cancel the previous plans and register.

Extension of limits.

1958. When an extension of cantonment limits or the acquisition of ground for other military purposes is proposed, the General Officer commanding the division concerned will prepare (in communication with the civil authorities) a sketch plan exhibiting the ground asked for, together with a description of the same. This plan and description, accompanied by a detail of the reasons for which the acquisition of the land is urged, and a statement of the probable cost of obtaining possession, will be submitted for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-chief, who, should the object to be attained by the proposed acquisition warrant the proceeding, will forward the same for the sanction of Government.

Unauthorised buildings.

1959. The preservation of cleanliness is of the first importance, and to this end the encroachment of huts or shops, temporary or otherwise, beyond the space already marked out for that purpose, or extending enclosures or courtyards, without the sanction of Government, is to be particularly prevented; any person erecting such buildings without this necessary sanction will be liable to have them demolished and to be required to remove the materials at his own cost.

Drains and water-channels.

1960. All persons residing within military cantonments are required to keep all drains and water-channels in and about their premises free from obstruction; to remove all causes of malaria; to keep their hedges, inner and outer, cut to the height of four feet from the level of the road, and not more than two feet in breadth, and branches of trees lopped off to the height of six feet from the ground.

Civilians to conform to rules.

1961. Civil officers residing or having their offices in a military cantonment shall conform to the general cantonment rules in regard to cleanliness, order and safety from fire in houses and grounds as laid down for all other residents.

Unoccupied houses.

1962. Unoccupied houses and grounds in cantonments must be kept in a proper state of order and repair by the owners. Whenever, after due warning, such houses or grounds are left unrepaired to such extent as to be prejudicial to health or to the appearance of the cantonment, application will be made to Government to direct the former to be sold and cleared away and the latter resumed: the proceeds of sale, after paying for the expenses of clearing, to be paid to the owner.

Out-houses.

1963. No thatched or grass or mat out-houses are to be built in the officers' lines in cantonments.

6. The regimental and department lines...

intrusion of persons unconnected with the corps or departments for whom the lines are intended.

Registry of inhabitants.

1965. A registry is to be made and kept of the inhabitants of every sadr and regimental bázár above referred to, as a means of preventing unauthorised intrusion, and also with a view to facilitate statistical inquiries (vide Division VI).

Preservation of trees.

1966. Trees standing in the compounds of houses within cantonment limits are not private property. When for sanitary or other reasons it is desirable to lop or cut down any such trees, the timber is to be considered the property of the house-owner. Owners or occupants are prohibited from cutting down or lopping any trees within the compounds without the consent of the cantonment committee.

Private lands for military purposes.

1967. The use of private lands for military purposes should be obtained through the Quarter-master General.

Periodical reports of changes.

1968. On the 1st of January of each year, periodical reports, in duplicate, on Bombay Form No. 211, are to be submitted, showing for each cantonment whether any buildings, houses, &c., have been newly erected during the period, whether any have been pulled down, and what property has changed hands. These documents should be signed by the Officer Commanding the cantonment and the Cantonment Magistrate or Staff Officer in charge of the register, who will be held responsible that the details are full and complete in every particular.

Cannanore, Bellary	Chapters V and VI only of the above applicable.
Trichinopoly	Chapter VI only of the above applicable.

The above Acts have not been made applicable to the cantonments not entered.

1970. The rules contained in these Acts have

Definition of a military cantonment.

1971. A military cantonment is, as its designation implies, a locality the military limits of which have been defined under the authority of Government, and which is set apart primarily for military and medical officers, chaplains, soldiers, European and East Indian subordinates and their families; for whom houses situated within such limits are by priority of right available. This rule, however, is not to interfere with gentlemen of the covenanted civil service, as regards the houses usually occupied by them in military cantonments.

Officers' residences.

1972. Regimental officers are required to live as near their lines or barracks as is practicable. A certain number of houses for each regiment will, therefore, be set apart in each cantonment by local Commanding Officers, and every opportunity should be taken advantage of to adjust the present inconvenient distribution of officers in cantonments so as to bring all stations under the above arrangement in course of time. Staff officers may be allowed to live in any part of a cantonment.

Accommodation for others.

1973. Other claims for house accommodation noted in the margin* for gentlemen and others will be considered and adjusted by the Officer Commanding the station, with due respect to their rank and position, and with regard to the availableness of houses in the cantonment for their use. But these gentlemen cannot retain any house that may be absolutely required for an officer of the military force at the station.

* Officers, Public Works and other Departments.
European and East Indian subordinates, &c., in the Civil or Public Works Department
Missionaries and other residents.

Tenure of houses.

1974. Houses within the limits of a cantonment, built on ground the property of Government, whether held on lease or not, are liable to be occupied as above, under the control of the Officer Commanding the station. Houses built on land not the property of Government, or held on freehold tenure or occupied as shops, are exempt from this liability.

Removal of non-military tenants.

1975. In the case of necessity arising, requiring the removal of a non-military tenant to make way for an officer, not less than one month's notice in writing must be given to the owner as well as the tenant of the house that the house in question is required. No summary ejectment is ever to be permitted, and the greatest consideration should be shown to the occupant whose removal on public grounds is rendered necessary. The Officer Commanding the cantonment may, however, extend the period of such notice when circumstances will admit of it, and other quarters should be provided for the person if removed as above, whenever practicable.

1976. The limits of every military cantonment are to be clearly defined

termaster General and that of the Divisional Quartermaster General or Station Staff Officer.

Boundaries of bázárs to be defined.

1977. The boundaries of sadr, station and regimental bázárs, and of any villages within the limits of cantonments, are also to be defined by pillars of masonry; and all buildings erected beyond the proper boundaries or assigned limits are to be thrown down, and the ruins removed at the expense of the proprietor.

Deviations from fixed limits prohibited.

1978. No deviation from the fixed limits of a cantonment, or from those of the lines, bázárs or enclosures surrounding Government buildings, is permitted without the sanction of Government, to be applied for through the Quartermaster General's department.

Disposal of useless ground.

1979. When from any cause any portion of the area of an existing cantonment is found to be no longer required for military purposes, a report to that effect is to be made by the Commanding Officer to the Quartermaster General, in order that it may be made over to the civil authorities.

Register of houses.

1980. A register of houses occupied and vacant, showing the rent of each, is to be kept in the station staff office, alterations being made in it from time to time, and no house is to be taken by any non-military officer unless with the concurrence of the Officer Commanding the station, whose duty it will be to see that such occupancy of the house will not interfere with public convenience.

Houses to be kept as residences.

1981. In order that the number of dwelling-houses in a cantonment available for civil and military officers, and officers of public departments, missionaries and others, may not be unduly diminished, no house, built on Government land or land leased from Government, or assigned to Government, for its own use, hitherto occupied as above, shall be converted into a shop, or otherwise rendered unsuitable as a residence, except under the sanction of the Officer Commanding the station; but any houses occupied as shops will not be liable to be registered as dwelling-houses, unless the owners wish it, or His Excellency the Commander-in-chief may consider it absolutely necessary.

Certain stations at which these rules do not apply.

1982. At stations such as Secunderabad, where the ground is foreign territory but assigned by the Nizam's Government to Her Majesty's Government for military purposes, the above rules, as regards the rental of houses and allotment of officers in the cantonment, are to have equal effect. Bangalore is specially exempted from the operation of these rules. Kamptee and Cuttack are under the Bengal Cantonment Rules.

[illegible] the decision of the orders of the Commander-in-chief, those submitted by gentlemen of the civil service being forwarded with the observations of His Excellency for final disposal by Government.

Houses to be numbered.

1986. Officers Commanding stations have authority to direct that numbers shall be affixed to houses or compounds in cantonments; the expense being borne by the owner or by the cantonment fund, and not by Government, save for buildings actually used for public purposes or the property of Government. Residents may also be directed to affix their names and designations on their houses, compound walls or gateways.

Excavations in cantonments.

1987 Residents in military cantonments are prohibited from making excavations on any ground within the boundaries except those made by permission to furnish materials for building, which are to be filled up again when no longer required at the expense of the individuals concerned.

* * * * *

Officers to perform duties connected with cantonments.

1993. All matters connected with cantonment lands and boundaries will be conducted, under the orders of the Commanding Officer, by the officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, in his absence, by the Cantonment Magistrate or the Staff Officer of the station, assisted, if necessary, by the Executive Engineer. Questions requiring the decision of higher authority are to be referred to headquarters through the Quartermaster General.

II.—Grants of Land.

Sanction of Commander-in-chief required to occupation of land.

1994. In no case is any cantonment land to be enclosed or occupied without the sanction of the Commander-in-chief, and Commanding Officers are strictly prohibited from allowing any one to occupy a site, under any circumstances whatever, until such sanction has been officially received; nor are the boundaries of compounds to be changed, old roads closed or new ones opened, without similar authority. Building-sites granted to officers in military cantonments should be no larger than is absolutely necessary conforming as far as possible to the dimensions laid down in the Public Works Code.

Submission of application for land.

1995. All applications for unoccupied ground for the purpose of being enclosed, built upon or to any way appropriated to private purposes, are to be forwarded, for transmission to the Officer Commanding the station, through the officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, in his absence, through the Cantonment Magistrate or Staff Officer of the station, as the case may be.

1996. The health and comfort of the troops occupied in any way calculated to be injurious to either or to the appearance of the cantonment. In forwarding to the Quartermaster General any application for a grant, he must certify that it is not objectionable in these or any other respects.

Form of application and certificate of Executive Engineer.

1997. All such applications are to be made on Bengal Form No. 85 Bombay Form No. 212, and must be accompanied by a sketch or rough plan of the site applied for, embracing the portion of the cantonment adjacent to it, and exhibiting the roads, public buildings or private estates by which it is bounded; also any line of railway proposed or actually passing through the cantonment; and, where the line of railway does not immediately abut on the ground applied for, the direction and distance are to be shown. This plan is to be authenticated by an officer of the Quartermaster General's department at the station, or, when no such officer is present, by the Executive Engineer of the division, to the effect that no departmental objection is known to the application, and that the grant, if made, does not seem likely to interfere with any building existing or likely to be required.

Grants of land to be registered.

1998. All grants are to be registered (Public Works Code,* paragraph 162, page 201) by the Cantonment Magistrate where one is allowed, or otherwise by the Staff Officer of the station; and all grants are to be immediately noted on the plan of the cantonment in the Quartermaster General's office.

Conditions under which ground is given.

1999. No ground will be granted except on the following conditions, which are to be subscribed to by every grantee as well as by those to whom his grant may subsequently be transferred:—

(a) Government to retain the power of resumption at any time, on giving one month's notice and paying the value of such buildings as may have been authorised to be erected.

(b) The ground, being in every case the property of Government, cannot be sold by the grantee; but houses or other property thereon situated may be transferred by one military or medical officer or chaplain to another on a joint report being made to the Staff Officer, who will make the requisite entry in the register, except in the case of relief, when, if required, the terms of the sale or transfer are to be adjusted by a committee of arbitration.

(c) If the ground has been built upon, the buildings are not to be disposed of to any person who does not belong to the army, until the consent of the Officer Commanding the station has been previously obtained under his hand.

(d) When it is proposed with the consent of the Officer Commanding the station to sell or transfer any house in cantonments, the sale or transfer must be made to officers and others in the service of Government only, and the sale or transfer of any house in cantonments must first receive the sanction of the local military authorities.

(e) The Commanding Officer has power to cancel the grant if the ground be not brought into use for the purpose specified within twelve months.

(MADRAS.)

Grants of land.

2000. Applications for grants of land within the limits of cantonments or fortresses will be made in the first instance to the Officer Commanding the station in the following form. No grants of land will be made except for the purpose of erecting thereon officers' quarters or shops for the convenience of residents. It will be the duty of the Officer Commanding the station to see that this purpose is fulfilled.

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

Leases.

2001. The Officer Commanding the station having satisfied himself that there is no objection in a military point of view to the occupation of the ground by the applicant, as also that it does not encroach on or interfere with any public road, parade or military work, will as-vicinity, accompanied by the application previously made to him, through the Officer Commanding the division, district or force, to the Quartermaster General, by whom it will be submitted for the consideration of the Commander-in-chief. In the event of its being sanctioned, a lease will be prepared by the Quartermaster General containing the following conditions:—

i.—To hold the lease for fifty years, renewable at the end of every ten years, at the option of Government.

ii.—To pay a yearly ground-rent as per Collector's valuation. To well and sufficiently repair, maintain, amend and keep the premises and appurtenances in such good and substantial repair as is necessary for the occupation of a tenant at rack-rent. To scour and cleanse all drains and watercourses belonging to the premises and keep the same free from obstruction. To remove from the premises and keep the same free from prickly-pear and aloe, and all causes of malaria. Hedges to be of a height not exceeding four feet from the level of the public road in front of, or leading to, the premises. To lop, and keep lopped, the branches of all trees, present and future, which shall grow lower than six feet from the ground.*

iii.—The premises, although maintained in the above order, to be given to Government at any time if required.

iv.—The premises to be open to the Government authorities, to take plans and examine the condition thereof.

v.—All or parts of requirements, if found necessary to be supplied, notice of which in writing to be left at the premises, to be attended to by the lessee within three calendar months.

vi.—Not to do, or willingly cause or suffer any act or thing to be done, in or upon the premises to the annoyance, grievance, damage or disturbance of Government or their tenants.

vii.—On assigning the premises to another, a notice in writing of the assignment to be given to the Officer Commanding the cantonment, with full particulars, within three calendar months.

viii.—The monthly rent should be limited to a sum equal to one-twelfth part of a sum equivalent to rupees fifteen per cent. per annum on the bonâ fide value of the building, to be certified by the local Engineer officer.

ix.—To officers the monthly rent to be limited to, and in no case to exceed, either the said sum or the sum of one hundred rupees, whichever of the said sums shall be least in amount; the meaning being that no more than one hundred rupees a month as rent can be demanded, although the bonâ fide value of the buildings may be more.

x.—If at any time the tenant, being a military officer, shall consider the rent to exceed the amount mentioned in the foregoing clause, and if the Engineer certify to that effect, the lessee should reduce the rent to what the Engineer shall fix.

N.B.—This is not intended to do away with the assembly of a house board.

xi.—If at any time it is desired to let or sell, the preference should be given to military officers of the cantonment over anybody else.

xii.—If the house is required for the residence of any of the officers of the cantonment, notice in writing to be given to the owner, and after thirty days the house should be vacated for occupation by such officer.

xiii.—If the Government require the land at any time, it should be restored on payment of the fair value of the buildings, to be fixed by the Engineer. If dissatisfied with this valu', the amount to be fixed by Government, which decision will be final.

xiv.—The lessee to conform to and obey all present and prospective orders and regulations of Government.

xv.—If the annual rent to Government is not paid within thirty days after the due date, or if the lessee become bankrupt or insolvent, and if there is any execution out against the lessee where the lease shall be seized or in case of the breach or non-performance of any of the conditions contained in the lease, it shall be lawful for the Government to obtain re-possession of the premises on payment of their value.

xvi.—If the ground is not built upon or brought into use for the purpose specified within twelve months, the lease may be cancelled under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-chief.

Grants not to be in perpetuity.

2002. The grant in perpetuity of any piece of ground within the precincts of any fort or cantonment shall not hereafter be accorded to any individual. It is of course sufficient to reject any application for ground if it be ascertained that to grant it would interfere with the public convenience in any manner whatever. With respect to land not the property of Government within fortresses or cantonments, application shall be made through the Collector and Board of Revenue to Government, a certificate from the Commanding Officer being at the same time produced to the effect that the occupation of the land in the manner proposed is free from objection in a military point of view.

2003. All grants of land made by Government under the above provisions

Reservations of land [illegible]

in his office. No charge is to be made for this duty. The proportion of land allowed to officers of the army requiring it is as follows:—

Field Officers	...	22,500 square yards.
Captains ...	...	12,000 do.
Subalterns ...	...	7,000 do.

Although the above is to be considered the usual scale, yet it may occasionally happen that, from the inequality of ground or other local causes, there may be no objection to an extension of the scale.

House board.

2004. Officers occupying houses built upon ground for which a grant has been made, considering that they are overcharged for rent, are at liberty to apply to the Officer Commanding the division for a house board; should the house board be of the same opinion, the Engineer of the division will be called on to prepare an estimate of the value of the house or buildings agreeably to the terms of the grant. The Engineer will be guided by his departmental rules in making the estimate, taking into consideration the valuation of the materials composing each building,* its state of repair, accommodation and general convenience. Should the rent charged be found to exceed fifteen per cent. of the bonâ fide value of the buildings, it shall be reduced to that standard. It is to be understood that this percentage includes the cost of all annual and necessary repairs, &c., which the house-owner is bound to make. The proceedings of the board and estimate of the Engineer will be forwarded through the channel above prescribed to the Quartermaster General, and eventually, if necessary, to Government.

* That is, value of materials and labour at the time such building was erected.

Repairs, &c.

2005. In the event of the house-owner refusing to lower his rent according to the terms of his lease he will be liable to have it cancelled. Should he decline to make the repairs required, a house board will be assembled to decide upon what is really required and what expense is to be incurred; the house will be repaired agreeably to its decision and the bonâ fide cost deducted from the rent.

Refusal of owners to act.

2006 In the case of parties possessing buildings on land for which no grant has been issued, the above stipulations are equally binding; but, should they refuse to conform to them, they will be obliged to have the buildings removed from off the ground, within six months from the date of the receipt of the order to do so.

No buildings are to be erected without sanction.

2007. No building of any kind is to be erected in a cantonment without the sanction of the Commander-in-chief, which must be applied for, through the station and divisional authorities, to the Quartermaster General. This applies to public departmental buildings as well as all others. Every application should state clearly the description and size of the building it is proposed to erect, and the purpose for which it is required, and should be accompanied by a sketch of the proposed site showing the buildings and roads, &c., in its immediate vicinity.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE primary object of this Bill is to overcome the great and increasing difficulty which military officers experience in obtaining houses near their lines or other place of duty, or even within the limits of cantonments. This matter is dealt with in Chapter V of the Bill, which, while insisting generally on the prior claim of military officers to occupy houses in cantonments, specially provides that the claim is not to extend to houses which are occupied as banks or have been occupied for three years as hotels or shops, and that disputes respecting the amount of rent to be paid for houses claimed by military officers are to be settled by committees of arbitration in which the civilian element will be predominant if houseowners so desire. Such privileges with respect to residence in cantonments as members of the Civil Service and other civilians enjoy in some parts of India are to cease, the only houses which are not to be subject to the prior claim of military officers being those already mentioned and houses owned by or under the control of railway administrations or appropriated by the Government to the use of such officials as postmasters and telegraph-officers whose residence in cantonments is necessary for the public convenience.

Nearly all land occupied by houses in cantonments has been granted to houseowners, or their predecessors in interest, by the Government under the rules for the time being applicable to the cantonments and identical with or similar to those set forth in the second schedule to the Bill. Local Governments have been asked to state, for the purposes of Chapter V and section 35, what the exceptions, if any, are within the territories which they respectively administer.

2. Of the other portions of the Bill the following only appear to call for remark:—

(1) Section 2.—It is proposed to repeal all existing Cantonment Acts in force in British India and several obsolete enactments relating to cantonments and

(2) Section 3.—The words "officer" and "soldier" are defined for the purposes of Chapters V and III, respectively; and the definition of the expression "spirituous liquor" is designed to remove difficulties which have arisen in the construction of that expression in existing enactments.

(3) Sections 4-7.—It is proposed that every cantonment be a subdivision of the district in which it is situated, and that the Subdivisional Magistrate be called the Cantonment Magistrate. If, as a Magistrate, the Cantonment Magistrate requires assistance, it can be given by the appointment of a Special Magistrate under section 14 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882. If, as Judge of a Court of Small Causes, he requires assistance, it can be given to him under section 8 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887. Officers who are now invested with power to try breaches of rules, not as Magistrates but in pursuance of an order of the Local Government under section 28, Act III of 1880, section 20, Madras Act I of 1866, or section 12, Bombay Act III of 1867, must be appointed Special Magistrates and, as such, observe the few rules prescribed in Chapter XX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, for the trial of summons-cases.

(4) Section 8.—This section vests the administration of the cantonment police in the District Superintendent under the general control and direction of the District Magistrate. Commanding officers of cantonments are to be relieved of the duty, which is now unnecessarily imposed upon them, of serving processes issued by the Courts for execution in cantonments.

(5) Sections 17-21.—These sections give a legal status to cantonment funds and cantonment committees. The want of such a status has been a not infrequent cause of inconvenience.

(6) Section 28.—This section, which would make every cantonment a sub-district for the purposes of the Indian Registration Act, III of 1877, and the Cantonment Magistrate the Sub-Registrar of the sub-district, and require the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, with respect to the registration of documents, to be observed in every cantonment, is designed to reduce the difficulties which now occur in the maintenance of registers of immoveable property in cantonments.

(7) Section 29.—Several of the powers which it is proposed to take for making rules are not given by enactments now in force.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 12th October, 1888:

NO. 18 OF 1888.

A Bill to amend the Indian Marine Act, 1887.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Marine Act, 1887; It is hereby enacted as follows; of 1887.

1. For sub-section (2) of section 2 of the Indian Marine Act, 1887, the following shall be substituted, namely:

Amendment of section 2, Act XIV of 1887.

XIV of 1887.

"(2) The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, vary any of the definitions in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) as occasion may appear to him to require, and the references to those clauses in the definition of the expression 'superior officer' in clause (c) of that sub-section shall be construed to be references to them as varied by any notification published under this sub-section and for the time being in force."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to enable the Governor General in Council, as occasion may require, to vary the definitions of "gazetted officer", "warrant officer" and "petty officer" in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of section 2, sub-section (1), of the Indian Marine Act, 1887. Inconvenience has resulted from the present hard-and-fast rules with respect to the classification of officers of the lower grades of the Indian Marine Service.

KHOORDA FAMINE.

THE followings paper are published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated the 23rd October 1888.

No. 1856R, dated Cuttack, the 24th September, 1888.

From—C. F. WORSLEY, ESQ., Commissioner of the Orissa Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

IN accordance with paragraph 9 of the Bengal Famine Code, I have the honour to submit copies of reports, noted in margin, from the Collector of Poorce and the Sub-divisional Officer of Khoorda, on the administration of relief in Khoorda sub-division for the fortnight ending 15th September, 1888.

Letter from Collector of Pooree to Commissioner, No. 1T—R, dated 20th—21st September, 1888.

Letter from Sub-divisional Officer, Khoorda, to Collector of Pooree, No. 562, dated 16th September, 1888.

2. The most important items of information contained in the Collector's report are (1) that "there is at last a fair prospect of a permanent improvement in the condition of the poorer classes over the distressed area," and (2) that "in the current fortnight the whole of the Banpore Circle (No. V), with the exception perhaps of a small area near Kuhuri (about which the Collector is not yet quite satisfied), will be removed from the famine area." It is also satisfactory to find that the amount advanced for charitable relief in Khoorda sub-division during the fortnight under report had not exceeded Rs. 2,991-13-4.

I fully share the Collector's expectation that, if the weather continues favourable, the funds in hand, with some small additional grant for gratuitous relief, will prove sufficient for all requirements.

3. I think that what has been called "the lull in the distress" may fairly be considered a distinct diminution of distress, and that there is now no more ground than in ordinary years at this season to anticipate an early cessation of the rains.

4. I agree with the Collector that the storm of the 16th instant will be found to have done less harm than was at first apprehended. In Dhenkanal State, where the storm was probably as violent as in Khoorda, and where more than five inches of rain fell, the beali rice crop in many places was beaten down to the ground, but it was so nearly ready for cutting that the cultivators had no fears for its safety.

5. The local reports are not quite so full as usual, and it seems unnecessary for me to summarise their contents.

6. I notice with satisfaction that Maharani Suryamoni Patmahadie, of Pooree, has subscribed one thousand rupees in aid of relief measures.

No. 1TR, dated Camp Banpore, the 20th—21st September, 1888.

From—D. B. ALLEN, Esq., Collector of Pooree,

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the report required by the Famine Code for the fortnight ending on the 15th instant, together with a copy of the Sub-divisional Officer's No. 562 of the 16th idem.

2. As I am in camp at a considerable distance from head-quarters, where former reports have been left, I fear that the information now given may not be sufficiently complete; but I will not delay the submission of this report, as I desire to give the earliest intimation possible that there is at last a fair prospect of a permanent improvement in the condition of the poorer classes over the distressed area. Mr. Taylor himself admits that there is a distinct lull in the distress; and though during the fortnight under report there has not been any change in the affected area, or in the numbers of relief circles and of officers in charge, yet an attempt has been made to restrict relief operations, and in the current fortnight the whole of the Banpore Circle, with the exception, perhaps, of a small area near Kuhuri (about which I am not yet quite satisfied) will be removed from the famine area.

3. Owing to the rains having provided additional field work, orders were issued to the Sub-divisional Officer early in the fortnight to cease giving advances, except in particular cases (which were to be specially reported), in all villages which had not lost at least half the crop last season, and to impress upon all the Circle Inspectors that gratuitous relief must now be given with the greatest caution and only in the most urgent cases. These orders were approved of by you, and on the 11th instant I paid a flying visit to Khoorda in order to impress on Mr. Taylor the necessity for restricting relief operations now as much as possible, even though we might be forced later in the season to resume them.

4. General state of the affected tracts, &c.—On the 13th, I started for a tour of inspection of all the relief circles, beginning with the South Chilka tracts, where I found that the Salt Inspector, Baboo Beni Madhub Mookerjee, who has been kindly assisting me in this area, had, as I anticipated from his weekly reports, been administering relief effectually and at the same time very economically. All this area, comprising the pergunnahs of Manikpatna, Satpara, Andhari, Parikud, Malud and Badgarkoot, is a difficult country to deal with. The soil for the most part is poor and sandy, and winter paddy, the staple crop of these pergunnahs, generally fails, more or less, over a great part of this area every year. Total or partial remissions of rent have been frequent and the residents have become utterly demoralised. Pointing to their stunted crops, they delight in posing as paupers, utterly ignoring numerous other sources of income, such as salt manufacture, fishing, carrying, &c. Of this area the crops look worst in Manikpatna, though backward all over the South Chilka tracts. The wages earned from salt manufacture and embankment works this year are at least Rs. 18,000 in excess of the amount so gained in the previous year, and there is but little actual distress; but relief measures on a very small scale must be still continued in the neighbourhood of Satpara for some time longer.

5. In Parikud, where there was a good harvest last year, prospects of a good outturn are promising. In Malud and Badgarcoot the crops, though backward, look still better, and the mandia, now ripe for harvest, is a splendid crop, but unfortunately it is grown over a comparatively small area. No relief measures have been undertaken, nor are they now required, over these three pergunnahs; but it must be remembered that, should the rains cease prematurely, the crops, which now look so promising, will never ripen, and there may be serious distress later in the season.

6. In the Banpore Circle there is a marked improvement. Mandia is being harvested, and the paddy, though backward, is very promising. Prices are still high, but relief operations may now be discontinued over nearly the whole of this circle.

7. So far I have been able to speak from the reports of local officers corroborated by my own observations. As regards the other circles, I must refer to Mr. Taylor's report, which is, I regret, not so full and complete as the previous ones submitted by him. The course of the recent storm was fortunately much narrower than he anticipated, and the injury done by the wind is confined to a far smaller area than he imagined, judging from the devastation caused in Khoorda and its immediate neighbourhood. On the whole the rain which accompanied the storm has done more good than harm, and prospects generally over the remaining circles are improved. Still the lull in the distress may be only temporary, and in any case there must be a continuance of relief operations, at any rate for the present, over all the circles except that of Banpore.

8. Number of Public Works, &c.—The works under this head are, I believe, the same as previously reported, except that the heading 3 (d) is no longer blank, the Rani of Pooree having, at my request, taken measures to relieve her poorer ryots in the assigned villages in Rameswar circle. Her relieving officer is acting under Mr. Taylor's instructions, and Rs. 900 are being expended on small works of improvement in this area.

9. I have received no figures showing the daily average numbers in receipt of gratuitous relief. As reported last fortnight, such relief has been (I believe) given judiciously, and not too liberally, except in the Banpore Circle. The recent diaries of the Inspector of the Banpore Circle appeared to show that he was becoming too lavish in the distribution of this form of relief. Immediate orders were issued by Mr. Taylor and reiterated by myself, and yesterday I inspected his office at Barkul, where he had been directed to meet me. There is, I fear, no doubt that in the early part of this month he ceased to follow implicitly the instructions given him; but his ill-judged generosity was checked by the Sub-divisional Officer as soon as it was discovered. Operations in this circle have now been closed. The Circle Inspector has been sent back to his regular work as income-tax assessor, and the Police Inspector, who did excellent work in the Western Circle, and is now in this neighbourhood, has been directed to watch the effect of these orders and to report if it be necessary to give any further relief in this circle.

10. As regards columns 5 and 6 of section 9 of the Famine Code, I can give no further information, nor have I with me in camp figures for column 7. South of the Chilka I found paddy selling at 32 katak seers (i.e. 42 ordinary seers) for the rupee, and coarse rice at 12 (i.e. 15¾ seers) for the rupee. The same figures were given me yesterday in the large market of Balugaon in this circle. Prices there were said to have risen within the last ten days, and that the rates in the early part of the fortnight under report were in 80 tola seers, paddy 52½, rice 18¾, and mandia 31½ seers for the rupee. However, I am not sure that the information furnished me was correct, as every attempt is now being made to get more money out of Government by exaggerating the present distress.

11. The figures for column 8 are, as regards Khoorda, given in paragraph 8 of Mr. Taylor's report. For Satpara I had advanced Rs. 400 up to the close of the previous fortnight, and of that only a balance of Rs. 35-13 was then left. During the present fortnight I gave a further advance of Rs. 100 to the Inspector, and the total expenditure was Rs. 135-13, chiefly on the two works at Nathapore and Satpara, which (by the way) I inspected on the 15th instant. The balance in hand was nil. A further sum of Rs. 200 has now been advanced.

12. As regards future requirements, I cannot speak with any certainty till I have completed the round of the relief circles and had further consultation with Mr. Taylor. Unless the paddy crop should, after all, prove a failure—and this is a possible contingency that I must dwell upon, for the rains have been so eccentric this year that it is impossible to forecast what may happen—the balance in hand for tuccavi advances, over Rs. 18,000, and that for improvement works, over Rs. 14,000, should prove sufficient. Mr. Taylor asks for Rs. 10,000 for gratuitous relief in addition to the Rs. 1,890 now in hand. Some additional grant for gratuitous relief must, I fear, be given; but I trust that we may be able to manage with less than the amount now asked for. However, I hope to speak more definitely after seeing Mr. Taylor at Khoorda, where I expect to arrive on the 25th instant.

13. Owing to the illness of Kumar Girindra Narain Deb, who has now been compelled to take leave on medical certificate, the regular work of the district has been getting into arrears in spite of all our efforts; but the arrival of an additional Deputy Magistrate and Collector, whose appointment to Pooree has, I am glad to see, been gazetted, and the further restriction of relief operations, which I now hope for, will I trust enable us to recover some of the ground that has been lost.

With apologies for the unsatisfactory character of this report.

No. 562, dated Khoorda, the 16th September 1888.

From—W. C. TAYLOR, ESQ., Sub-divisional Officer,
To—The Collector of Pooree.

I HAVE very little to say in reporting on distress for the first half of September beyond what was given in my report, No. 531 of the 11th instant.

2. So far as I can see, the distress is getting less pronounced: there is still a great deal of work in the fields, and we have a great many petty improvement works in progress.

3. There is, in fact, a distinct lull in distress, and the people are busy everywhere in trying to cultivate and repair the damage done to the paddy crop.

4. In some places beali and panichi dhan are being reaped, but the area under this early rice is very limited in Khoorda. Outside our boundaries in Cuttack and in the delta of the Pooree district, the beali crop is reported ready or nearly ready for the sickle, and to be a bumper crop. A severe storm or cyclone which occurred last night will, I fear, have done great damage to the beali and panichi dhan and to the mandia, china, and other millets now in ear and ripening, and also to the fields of sugarcane and pán gardens.

5. At Khoorda itself the damage done to trees is very great, and my own garden has been completely wrecked. Many trees in the forest and District Board bungalow compounds and on the roadsides have also been blown down. The storm was accompanied by upwards of six inches of rain, but as the greater part of the rice crop is still so small, this heavy rain will not do much harm in Khoorda, except to the very early paddy and mandia, above referred to. I have myself seen several fields of ripening mandia completely levelled and beaten down by last night's wind and rain.

6. As yet I have no information regarding the extent of the storm or the amount of damage done elsewhere; but both must be very great, as the wind blew furiously and in great gusts for fully six hours, commencing north of west at about 1-30 A.M., and subsiding from due south at 7 A.M.

7. From one place, eight miles off, I hear that the wind and rain were as heavy as at Khoorda, and for one to two miles off down the Cuttack road a number of telegraph posts have been blown down and communication by wire with Cuttack and Pooree interrupted. Heavy rain is also reported from Tangy, and an extraordinarily high flood in the Madagni river in Rameswar, which shows that the rain accompanying the storm has extended far to the west and south.

8. The following memorandum of receipts and expenditure will, I trust, be considered sufficient for this occasion, and I hope to report more fully and in detail at the close of the month.

The receipts and expenditure and balances under the several heads were for the fortnight as follows:—

9. I have much pleasure in reporting that Maharani Suryamoni Patmahadie of Pooree has subscribed one thousand rupees in aid of relief measures in the Khoorda villages of Rameswar and Tapang assigned to the temple of Jagannath. Of this sum Rs. 900 will be expended on small works of improvement, of which her agent has already started several, and Rs. 100 will be distributed in gratuitous relief.

10. As no figures have as yet been received from the circle officers of the numbers gratuitously relieved or employed on works, I do not think it necessary to delay this report.

No. 216 T.R., dated Darjeeling, the 18th October, 1888.

From—H. W. C. CARNDUFF, Esq., Under-Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department,

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1856R, dated the 24th September, 1888, submitting reports on the administration of relief to famine-stricken people in the Khoorda Sub-division for the fortnight ending the 15th September, 1888.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Lieutenant-Governor observes with satisfaction the diminution in the symptoms of immediate distress and the prospect of permanent improvement, should the rice crops now ripening prove adequate. Under the circumstances a very careful estimate of the result of the coming harvest, upon the success of which so much depends, should be made. His Honour remarks that the Collector's report does not contain all the information required by section 9 of the Famine Code, and the absence of returns of the number of persons receiving gratuitous relief, and of those employed on public works, is an omission which should in future be remedied. Arrangements should be made for the regular submission of such returns, which are required, not only for the information of Government, but for the guidance of the local officers themselves.

3. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor may be communicated to Maharani Suryamoni Patmahadie, of Pooree, for her generous subscription of Rs. 1,000 in aid of relief measures.

CALCUTTA, the 23rd October 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 19TH OF OCTOBER 1888.

THE most remarkable feature about the weather of the past week has been its general quietness and its remarkable coolness at the close. Slightly unsettled conditions prevailed over a limited area over and in the neighbourhood of the hills during the first two days, but these conditions quickly disappeared, and after the 14th, throughout the whole province, fine, bright and in places cool weather prevailed. The pressure and wind conditions have not exactly coincided with the average, pressure having been relatively lower over the eastern portion of the province, Assam and the Eastern Peninsula, than is normally the case; while the reports of the India Meteorological Department show that abnormally high pressures have been reported from the Indian Peninsula, hence the barometric gradient has been for northerly winds all over the province, instead of, as is normally the case, for north-easterly winds in the east and north-westerly winds in the west. This unusual direction of the wind has been accompanied with high pressures, a low humidity, and at the close of the week with a low temperature. It is hence fair to assume that it was more or less a descending current largely derived from the hills to the north, and that the dry weather which has prevailed is due to this cause. From a consideration of the general excessive pressure which prevails, as well as from its distribution and the accompanying winds, it would appear that cold weather conditions are now firmly established over this part of India. Hence the centre of possible disturbance has been transferred from the north to the south of the Bay, and unless, owing to a most unusual change of conditions, this should be reversed, fine settled conditions should now prevail over Bengal. The rainfall and deficient pressures which occurred over and near the hills at the beginning of the week were not improbably accompanied with snow in the interior, a phenomenon which is usually followed by an outset of cool, dry air from the hills, and a brisk fall of temperature.

Pressure.—At the beginning of the week pressure was above the normal average at almost all stations, but the excess was very much less than it had been in the previous week, and at Darjeeling and Rungpore the barometric reading was below the normal. On the 14th there occurred a brisk recovery, which held during the following day. On the 16th the barometer again fell, and the excess of pressure over the normal was again slightly reduced. The reports of the 17th and 18th showed a continuance of the fall, while on the 19th there was another general and brisk recovery. Throughout the whole week the oscillations of pressure have been general and fairly uniform, and only on the 13th has the barometer at any station showed a pressure below the normal pressure of the time of year; on all other occasions there has been an excess, which has varied in amount according to the upward or downward oscillation in progress at the time. These general oscillations of pressure, if slight, are seldom accompanied with unsettled or changeable weather, which at this season of the year is usually associated with either a long-continued oscillation, or irregular barometric changes.

Temperature.—On the 13th the variation of temperature from the mean were irregular, between the 14th and 17th there was a more or less general excess; while on the 18th there occurred a brisk fall, and the reports of that and the following day exhibited a large abnormal coolness. The excess at the commencement and defect at the close of the week to a large extent balanced, and the final variations of the week exhibit only a slight general deficiency.

Winds—Have been generally light. At first there was great variability in the general direction, but subsequently the direction became generally northerly

Humidity and cloud.—Humidity has been generally low, and the cloud proportion on the whole very slight.

Rainfall.—At the great majority of stations there has been no rain, and in those places where it has fallen, the amount has been light and greatly below the average of the week.

The concluding table shows that no rain whatever fell in North Behar or Chutia Nagpur, and that the mean fall in all the other districts except North Bengal was less than one-tenth of an inch.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 19th of October 1888 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h., and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the new Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly in the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

census of the Europeans in the Darjiling Municipality was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1881, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives as it was not necessary to re-census them. The ratios have consequently been calculated on the revised population under all heads in the above table, except "Age," the ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as the census of the Europeans cannot be employed as a basis of calculation owing to the results of the census under this head not having been recorded under the authorized form of age classification.

But if at any time before the expiry of the period for which the ferry has been leased to me, I be removed therefrom for any breach of the terms and conditions of the lease, or for any wilful breach of any of the rules under section 15 of the Act, I shall be liable to pay rent up to and including the instalment due next after my removal.

8. If the rates of toll are reduced during the currency of my lease, or the exemptions from the payment of it are extended, this agreement is to be modified accordingly. I shall be given a fair opportunity of satisfying the Magistrate as to the effect of the change, and if the terms proposed by him thereafter are not such as I can reasonably accept, I will, according to the law, immediately carry into effect the order reducing the rates of toll, or extending the exemption from payment of it, but will at the same time state the amount of rent I may be willing to pay under the altered circumstances of the case. Should my offer appear to the Magistrate to be inadequate, it shall be competent to him to remove me and place another person in charge of the ferry, and for such time as I remain in charge of the ferry after the issue of the order reducing the rates of tolls, or extending the exemption from payment of it, I shall pay rent in proportion to the amount of the reduction.

If I make default in the payment of the rent for the ferry, or of any penalty which may be lawfully imposed, or if I do not observe and perform the covenants herein contained, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to remove me from the charge of the ferry, and to settle the same with some other person or hold it khas. After such removal I shall not be entitled to any part of the proceeds of the ferry or to levy any toll therefor. And if the rent on reletting the ferry fall short of the amount at which it was leased to me, and the Government or District Board or Municipality thereby incur loss, I shall be held responsible for such difference or loss, the amount of which may be deducted from my deposit. If the deposit does not cover the loss incurred, the rent due from me, and the amount of tolls refunded by the Magistrate under Rule 21 of the rules under section 15 of the Act, the total amount which is deficient shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in section 12 of the Act.

It shall be lawful for the Magistrate or the District Board (as the case may be) to deduct the amount of rent which I may default to pay, from my security deposit, and to direct me to recoup the same within a given time, and on my failure to do so to remove me from the charge of the ferry.

10. I will not assign, sublet or part with the possession of the ferry without the previous consent, in writing, of the Magistrate.

11. I shall not claim any compensation on account of roads being closed for repairs, or on account of inundations, or the breaking down of bridges or deficiency of water in the river on which the ferry is situated.

It shall be lawful for the Magistrate or the District Board (as the case may be) to deduct the amount of rent which I may default to pay from my security deposit, and to direct me to recoup the same within a given time, and on my failure to do so to remove me from the charge of the ferry.

WHEREAS it is expedient to supplement by legislation in the Council of the Governor-General for making Laws and Regulations certain provisions of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

[Act XXII of 1870, and see 34 & 35 Vict., c. 34, s. 3.]

(b) the decisions, orders and other proceedings of those Benches, Magistrates and Courts or of any such Judge,

[Act 188

Reference of questions by the Chief Judge of the Bombay Small Cause Court to the Bombay High Court.

2. (1) If before or on the hearing of an appeal under section 217 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, any question of law or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document, which construction may affect the merits, arises, on which the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay entertains reasonable doubt, the Chief Judge may, either of his own motion or on the application of either or any of the parties, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement, with his own opinion on the point, for the decision of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay.

(2) When a reference is made to the High Court under sub-section (1), the provisions of sections 618 to 621, both inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes and to the High Court, respectively.

3. (1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay from a decision passed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay under section 503 or section 504 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, when the amount of the claim in respect of which the decision is passed exceeds two thousand rupees.

(2) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure with respect to appeals from original decrees shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to appeals under sub-section (1), and orders passed therein by the High Court may, on application to the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes, be executed by him as if they were decrees made by himself.

(3) A decision passed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Bombay under section 503 or section 504 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, shall, if an appeal does not lie therefrom under sub-section (1), be final.

4. (1) An appeal shall lie to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay from an order passed by a Presidency Magistrate under section 515 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888.

(2) The High Court may from time to time make rules for regulating the admission of appeals under sub-section (1) and the procedure to be followed in the adjudication thereof.

(3) When an appeal has been preferred to the High Court under this section, the Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay shall defer action upon the order of the Presidency Magistrate until the appeal has been disposed of:

(4) But, when the appeal has been disposed of, he shall forthwith give effect to the order passed therein by the High Court, or, if the order of the Presidency Magistrate has not been disturbed by the High Court, then to his order.

(5) When disposing of an appeal under this section the High Court may direct by whom the costs of the appeal are to be paid, and whether in whole or in what part or proportion. [Act XIV 1882, s. 219.]

(6) Costs so directed to be paid may, on application to a Presidency Magistrate, be recovered by him, in accordance with the direction of the High Court, as if they were a fine imposed by himself. [Act X, 1882, s. 148.]

5. An appeal to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay under either of the two last foregoing sections shall, for the purposes of No. 156 of the second schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, be deemed to be an appeal under the Code of Civil Procedure in a case not provided for by No. 151 and No. 153 of that schedule. XV of 1877. XIV of 1882.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of the first section of the accompanying Bill is to remove all room for doubt as to the validity of those clauses of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1889, and the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, which, as creating in Presidency-towns tribunals having authority to make final orders, might be held to be in derogation of the jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature at Fort William and at Bombay respectively.

The other sections of the Bill invest the High Court at Bombay, as a Court of Reference and Appeal, with certain jurisdiction which can certainly be conferred by the Governor-General in Council, but the conferment of which by the Governor of Bombay in Council might possibly be called in question.

Kazi Syud Reza Khan Bahadoor recently assigned an estate in the district of Patna of the annual value of Rs. 1,200 as an endowment for the English education of Mahomedan youths in the Patna College and the Oriental College of Aligarh, and has now offered to make over to Government a sum of Rs. 1,200, to be invested in Government securities, for the foundation of a scholarship of Rs. 4 a month, tenable for one year, to be awarded to the best student of the Entrance class of the Patna Anglo-Arabic School. The donor desires the scholarship to be paid, so long as the school exists, to the Secretary, the Local Government having, in the event of the closing of the institution, power to apply the income of the fund, at its discretion, to such purposes as may be deemed most likely to promote the advancement of English education among Mahomedan youths. The Lieutenant-Governor gladly accepts the Kazi's offer, and directs that the thanks of Government be conveyed to him for his public spirit and liberality. The Inspector of Schools, Behar Circle, will be the administrator of the fund, and will pay the scholarship on bills submitted by the Secretary to the Patna Anglo-Arabic School.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

Presidency Divn. 6	24-Perghs. Oct. 30, '88	Nil	Weather—generally hot, but cool in the morning. Prospects of crops continue good everywhere except in the flooded parts of the Diamond Harbour sub-division. Rain is, however, wanted for the crops on the higher lands.
7	Nuddea „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—days warm; mornings and nights cool. Prospects of amun rice poor in Kushtea and Sudder; fair in other sub-divisions. Ploughing and sowing for rubbi crops continue.
8	Khoolna „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Amun on high lands wants rain. Otherwise prospects are fair.
9	Jessore „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable. Rain is wanted for amun paddy which is in ear. Sowings of winter crops going on.
10	Moorshedabad „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and clear; nights cool; days hot. Amun suffering for want of rain. Kalai promising. Rubbi sowings commenced.
Rajshahye Divn. 11	Dinagepur „ 27, '88	Nil	The last few days have been cloudy, but for the week the weather has been still and clear. Rain is badly wanted. The winter rice is withering, and much anxiety is felt. Price of common rice has risen. The mahajans are still exporting rice, but the cultivators are withholding their stocks.
12	Rajshahye „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—very cool at night; hot sun in day time. Rice sells at an average of 17½ seers for the district, 14½ seers in the town of Beauleah. Crops not bad in Nattore; elsewhere rain most urgently required. Amun has suffered in many places.
13	Rungpur „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and still with hot days and cool nights. Rain much wanted. Amun crop prospects bad. Tobacco being planted and other cold-weather crops being sown.
14	Bogra „ 27, '88	Nil	Calm and cool clear weather. Amun is in ear in some places, but the crops of the high lands are being dried up for continued drought. Sugarcane and mashkalai are growing. Mustard is being sown. Til blossoming. Rain much wanted.
15	Pubna „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fair. Prospects of amun paddy good. Winter crops are being sown.
16	Darjeeling „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fine, but cloudy. Prospects of crops fair, but rain is badly wanted both in hills and plains.
17	Julpigoree „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—mornings and nights cool; days warm. Prospects of haimanti paddy are bad, especially in the Alipore tehsil. Transplantation of tobacco has commenced. Price of rice has risen. Common rice selling at the Sudder station at 16 seers per rupee.

Chittagong Divn.	22	Chittagong ...	...	Report not received.
	23	Noakholly Oct. 26, '88	Ni	Weather—seasonable. State of amun generally good. Soil is being prepared for winter crops.
	24	Tipperah „ 25, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable, and getting very cool. The winter rice is coming on spendidly everywhere.
	25	Chittagong Hill Tracts. „ 23, '88	Nil	Weather—seasonable, with foggy mornings; it has been distinctly warmer again the past two or three days. Gathering of jum paddy nearly over. Cotton plants are in pods here and there. Late rice crops in low lands progressing.
		Hill Tipperah „ 24, '88	Nil	Weather—fair. Amun paddy and cotton doing well. Chilly and tobacco continue to be transplanted.
BEHAR.
Patna Divn.	26	Patna „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy and hot. Rain urgently wanted for paddy and rubbi sowings. From Behar it is reported that prices are rising fast, and without rain to allow of the ground being prepared for spring crops scarcity is very probable. Fodder is also scarce. Prices are high in other sub-divisions.
	27	Gya „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy for the past three days. Paddy is dying for want of rain. If it does not rain within four or five days, only four annas paddy crop can be expected. Sowing of rubbi crop also being much delayed.
	28	Shahabad „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and cloudy. Paddy crop withering for want of rain, except on canal-irrigated lands. Rubbi sowing continues where well water is accessible; but if no rain falls, such fields as are beyond the reach of well water will be left fallow. Fever prevalent to such an extent as to affect agricultural operations injuriously. Prices rising Scarcity anticipated in parts.
	29	Durbhanga „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—clouds have collected during the last few days, but they clear away in the evening, leaving the nights starry and bright. There is prospect of light rain. There is now no doubt that all the unirrigable high land rice in the Madhubani and Durbhanga sub-divisions will fail. It is withering and being cut for fodder or to make way for a rubbi crop if rain should fall. The poorer classes are at present finding labour in irrigating lands where the crop still survives. In a month or so this source of labour will be exhausted. Prices are now high throughout the district.
	30	Mozufferpur „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—days hot; mornings and evenings cool; cloudy during last three days. Rubbi sowings progressing. Rain most urgently wanted for winter rice all over, and for rubbi sowings in parts of the district. Paddy plants being cut for fodder for cattle in the north of the Sitamarhi sub-division. Prices rising.
	31	Sarun „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—hot, close and sultry; clouding over; nights cool. Rain very urgently required for paddy. Rubbi is being sown, but with very little hope of a good crop if there be no rain shortly, because the whole area will not be sown. Prices of food-grains rising.
	32	Chumparun „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fair, but occasionally cloudy. Prospects of paddy crop bad. Irrigation being carried on wherever possible. Rubbi sowings germinating badly in places for lack of moisture. Rain badly wanted. Prices of food-grains rising
Bhagulpur Divn.	33	Monghyr „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—days rather hot; nights somewhat cold. There have been some clouds for the latter part of the week, but no rain, which is very urgently needed throughout the district for the present and the future crops. Paddy scorched in high lands, and rubbi sowings retarded for want of rain. Prices rising.
	34	Bhagulpur „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—too warm for the season and cloudy latterly. Much of the high land rice, especially in Supool, has been now irretrievably lost, and that on lower lands is suffering. Rubbi sowings retarded for want of moisture. Prices rising and prospects gloomy. Clouds, however, are gathering again.
	35	Purneah „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy, but no rain; warmer. In the absence of more rain, the aghani crop will not exceed 8 annas certain.
	36	Maldah „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and cool. Rain is urgently wanted for winter rice crops. Prospects not favourable. Price of common rice has risen to 12 seers since last week.
	37	Sonthal Perghs. „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—cloudy and warm with easterly wind. No rain. Bhadoi harvest over; outturn defective, about 8 annas. Prospects of rice becoming rapidly worse for want of rain. If none comes, crop will not much exceed 8 annas, and perhaps be less. Prices of rice (11 and 12 seers per rupee) rising.
ORISSA.
Orissa Divn.	38	Cuttack „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and clear. Early sarad in ear. The paddy crops on high lands are withering. Those on low lands also likely to suffer, provided there be no rain shortly. Price of rice rising. Fields are being irrigated by water from canals and tanks.
	39	Pooree „ 25, '88	None registered, but a few slight showers yesterday and to-day in parts of the district, and the sky is overcast with clouds.	Weather—hot and dry. The prospects of the winter (sarad) crop are very critical for want of rain. If rain does not fall within a week or so the sarad crop will fail. Laghu sarad has been damaged by drought. Wherever it is possible, lands are being irrigated from all available tanks, rivers, ponds, &c. Common rice 16 seers 1 chittack per rupee in the Sudder sub-division, and 16 seers 10 chittacks in the Khoorda sub-division.
		Khoorda ...	Nil
	40	Balasore „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—fine and clear. Beali rice and birhi being harvested. Sarad rice in ear; suffering much from want of rain. Irrigation going on so far as possible. If no rain falls shortly, the outturn will be most seriously affected. Prices rising.
CHOTA NAGPORE.
		South-West Frontier Agency.
Chota Nagpore Divn.	41	Hazaribagh Oct. 26, '88	Nil	Weather—bright and clear; rainless. Paddy crops on the high lands suffering for want of rain. Prospects of winter rice now very indifferent. Rain urgently wanted for paddy and rubbi crops. Prices rising.
	42	Lohardugga „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—warm and cloudy. Clouds hovering, but no rain. Anxiety experienced regarding winter paddy. Rubbi sowing is at a standstill for want of rain. Prices rising.
	43	Singbhoom „ 26, '88	Nil	Weather—somewhat cloudy and warmer than in the previous week. No change in the prospect of the winter dhan, about quarter of which has been lost owing to the continued drought. There was a fall in the price of common rice at last market owing to the appearance of the new gora dhan
	44	Manbhoom „ 27, '88	Nil	Weather—hot and close. All crops more or less damaged for want of rain. The paddy crop is estimated at from 6 to 10 annas throughout the greater part of the district.

CALCUTTA, the 30th October 1888.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 26TH OF OCTOBER 1888.

THE conditions which prevailed in Bengal at the close of the previous week were those which generally immediately precede the setting in of the cold weather in Bengal. During the present week, however, these conditions have, if anything, rather decreased in intensity, though still fine clear weather, with an almost complete absence of rain, has been reported in almost all cases throughout the week. Generally over the Bay a light northerly wind current has prevailed, and at the southern stations, along the Madras coast, fairly general rain has been reported, showing that the south-west monsoon current has partly recurred in the usual manner, but up to the present time the wind currents in Bengal have been very light and variable, and the steady northerly monsoon winds which usher in the cold weather have not yet set in.

Pressure.—At the commencement of the week pressure varied very slightly, and up to the 21st the changes were unimportant. From this date a steady rise of the barometer set in, which continued up till the 25th, and so rapid was the rise that on the 24th pressure was in excess of the normal by amounts varying between a tenth and a sixth of an inch, while on the 25th the excess ranged up to a fifth of an inch. This long oscillation then ceased, and pressure had fallen by small amounts on the morning of the 26th. For the whole province, taking into consideration only those stations at which reliable averages have been obtained, pressure for the week has been 0·08 inch in excess of the normal. In Assam the mean excess has been 0·085 inch.

Temperature—Was at the commencement of the week decidedly below the normal, the defect in the mean temperature reported on the 20th averaging about 2° to 4°. On the 21st the defect had increased to from 3° to 4°, but from this date a continued increase in temperature was reported, which has lasted up to the close of the week. From the 22nd to the 24th the mean temperature was either in slight defect or not very far removed from the normal, but on the 25th the excess above the normal mean temperature ranged up to about 4° to 5°; while on the 26th it had increased to nearly 5° and 6°; and at Patna on this day the excess was 6·5°, and at Calcutta 6°. For the whole week the mean temperature of the province has been about half a degree below the normal; while in Assam temperature has been in excess by a tenth of a degree.

Winds.—The winds blowing over the province have been rather light and variable Easterly winds commenced to set in near the hills on the 20th, and for the next two days the winds became more north-easterly; but for the last four days in the week the winds were decidedly irregular in direction, and the north-easterly current, which had commenced to blow, and which generally sets in with the cold weather, had to a considerable extent disappeared.

Humidity and cloud—At the commencement of the week were both low; but from the 22nd there was a rather considerable increase in the humidity, and for the latter half of the week it was rather high. Cloud proportion remained low until the 25th, when the sky became rather heavily clouded in Behar, while the cloud proportion also increased in other districts.

Rainfall.—Except for a very light shower (0·07 inch) at Silchar on the 23rd, and for a rather heavy shower (0·72 inch) at Pooree on the 25th, the whole province has been rainless during the entire week.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 26th of October 1888 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

Road Cess.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 368.

The 2nd November 1888.

THE subjoined annual account and report of the Road Fund, Chittagong Hill Tracts, for the cess year 1887-88, from 1st April 1887 to 31st March 1888, are published for general information.

W. CONNAN,
Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, P. W. Dept.

No. 212R, dated Rangamati, the 20th June 1888.

From—L. R. FORBES, ESQ., Deputy Commissioner, Chittagong Hill Tracts,
To—The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the report and accounts in duplicate of the Road Fund Department of this district for the year 1887-88.

The survey operations on the Ruma and Rangamati road were resumed in the middle of November. At the first start 40 men of the coolie corps were sent to Pyramid Hill to work under the Supervisor in charge of the survey. It turned out, however, that the men could not stand the climate so early in the season, and there was much sickness resulting in three deaths. Consequently the officer in command at Ruma recalled these men to Ruma, and arrangements were immediately made for 40 Bengali coolies to proceed to Pyramid Hill to do the work of trace cutting under the Supervisor. The Supervisor was also supplied with 30 Mugh coolies for jungle-clearing. The work was in fair progress when the report of the murder of Lieutenant Stewart and party created a panic among the coolies, and it was with great difficulty that they were kept from running away. Ultimately the news of the Chaima raid put a stop to all work and the coolies went away to their homes. Endeavours were, however, made subsequently to organise labor, but it was ineffectual; so out of four to five months of the working season there was work for a little over two and a half months only, i.e. December and January and a part of February, and hence progress during the year has been very slow.

2. Two military survey parties, viz. one consisting of Captain Shakespear, Lieutenant Baird and one European soldier, and the other consisting of Lieutenant Stewart and two European soldiers, commenced survey operations in the beginning of January, the former party starting from Demagri towards Oipoom, and the latter starting from Rangamati towards Saichal. But owing to the sad occurrence near the Belaisurry tong the first party was recalled and all survey operations consequently stopped. The first party succeeded in completing the survey for a distance of about 20 miles along the Oipoom, and the second party about the same distance towards the Saichal.

3. The construction of the portion of the road between Polityе and Pyramid Hill was also taken in hand from the beginning of December with a large number of coolies (150) under a contractor who succeeded in completing nearly six miles of the road within two months. But unfortunately the Kukee scare put a stop to further progress.

4. The necessity for a cart road from Peskisurah to Upper Burkal by the left bank of the river has been felt for a long time. An endeavour was made this year and proved successful. The earthwork of the entire length of one mile and 3,500 feet was executed. The bridging of nullahs or constructing causeways could not be done for want of both money and labour.

5. Repairs.—All existing roads in the district were maintained chiefly by clearing jungle and constructing or repairing temporary bridges over nullahs, these works were all executed by contract.

No. 704G.M.—VII-16, dated Chittagong, the 19th July 1888.

Memo. by—D. R. LYALL, ESQ., Commissioner of the Chittagong Division.

COPY, with duplicate copy of the accounts, submitted to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

The year shows very little real work. The main cause was the scare caused by the raids.

The difficulties are necessarily very great as not only has the labour to be got, but the men working have to be fed, and it was in this there was to some extent a failure.

I hope for better progress this year.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The preparation of an Indian Railway Code consistent, so far as public interests permit, with the letter of the contracts subsisting between the Government and railway companies has been under consideration for many years, and the Indian Railways Bill has been drawn with special reference to the objections to which the drafts prepared in 1866 and in 1884 were considered both in India and in England to be open.

2. The references in the margin indicate generally the documents which have been considered in the preparation of the Bill. But some of those documents are not accessible to the public, and partly for this reason, and partly for the purpose of explaining the changes which it is proposed to introduce into the law relating to railways in India, the following portions of the Bill appear to call for special remark :—

(1) Section 2, sub-section (1).—Among the enactments to be repealed are section 10 of the Carriers Act, 1865, which was superseded by the last paragraph of section 2 of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, and will be rendered unnecessary by section 72, sub-section (3), of the Bill. As regards section 16 of the Bengal Embankment Act, 1882, it is considered that the retention by the Collector of the power conferred upon him by that section will be undesirable if sections 11 and 12 of the Bill become law. Section 3, sub-section (1), and section 142 of the Bill take the place of section 51, Act IV of 1879, and section 49, Act XI of 1886.

(2) Section 3, clause (3), sub-clause (d).—Sub-clause (d) of the definition of "railway" has been restricted to such vessels as are used on rivers and other inland waters within the local extent of the Act. It has been held that the corresponding clause in Act IV of 1879 must be read in this restricted sense, as, apart from the local extent of that Act, a wider construction of the clause might bring the Railways Act into collision with the Merchant Shipping Acts and the provisions of the general law relating to the carriage of passengers and goods by sea.

(3) Section 3, clauses (3) and (6).—These clauses are supplemented by sub-section (1) of section 114, which applies certain portions of the proposed Act to railways under construction and to railways not used for the public carriage of passengers, animals or goods, and by sub-section (2) of the same section, which declares the expression "railway servant" in certain sections of the Act to include the servants of railway contractors.

(4) Section 3, clause (5).—For the purposes of Chapter VII of the Bill, relating to the responsibility of railway administrations as carriers, it is proper to define the expression "railway administration", in the case of a railway administered by the Government or a Native State, to include the Government or State, as the case may be.

(5) Section 3, clause (13), and sections 44 et seqq.—These provisions are in the terms of sections 55 and 24, respectively, of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888.

(6) Section 5, clause (c).—In accordance with a suggestion made by one of the railway companies with reference to the draft Bill of 1884, communications between railway companies and their legal advisers have been expressly excepted from the documents of which an Inspector of Railways may require the production.

(7) Section 7.—This section follows generally the terms of an English enactment, but supersedes any local enactments which prohibit the construction of railways over gas-pipes and the like without the previous permission of municipal commissioners. The expense of diverting the course of a railway for the purpose of avoiding a gas-pipe would usually be out of all proportion to any damage which might possibly be caused by the railway passing over the pipe.

(8) Section 8.—This section confers on railway administrations a power which the telegraph authority has under the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885.

(9) Sections 11 and 12.—The former of these sections imposes on the railway administration the duty, subject to certain exceptions, of constructing such accommodation works for the use of owners and occupiers of lands as are proved to be necessary within ten years from the date on which the railway passing through the lands was first opened for public traffic. Under the latter section an owner or occupier may require any reasonable accommodation work to be constructed by a railway administration at his expense after the expiration of the ten years.

(10) Section 13.—This section provides for the erection of fences in pursuance of express requisitions by the Governor General in Council, instead of under rules which can hardly be so drawn as to be applicable to all cases. The section also empowers the Governor General in Council to require the construction of screens in places where there is danger of horses being frightened by the sight or noise of rolling-stock moving on a railway.

(11) Section 14.—This section reproduces the substance of section 7 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, and, following section 16 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, reserves to the Governor General in Council power to require as a condition of an order being made on a railway administration for the construction of works at a level-crossing that the local authority, if any, which maintains the road crossed on the level shall undertake to pay the whole or a fair share of the cost of the works.

(12) Section 15.—In permitting a railway administration to act in a case of emergency without the permission of a Magistrate, and so going beyond the provisions of the corresponding section of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, this section confers a power which it is deemed essential that railway authorities should possess.

(13) Chapter IV.—Section 16, sub-section (2), is designed to prevent the recurrence of the very serious accidents which have from time to time occurred from the unregulated use of locomotive power on railways under construction.

Provision has been made in sections 21 and 22 for the opening of a railway, without the sanction of the Governor General in Council or an Inspector, where there has been an accident resulting in a temporary suspension of traffic or where works are of so unimportant a character that the application to them of the general law relating to the opening of railways is unnecessary.

(14) Chapter V.—This Chapter is the most important part of the Bill, and in its preparation careful regard has been had to the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, and to the Annual Reports of the Railway Commissioners.

Closely following the law in England, the Chapter imposes on railway administrations the general duty of arranging to receive, forward and deliver traffic without unreasonable delay and without partiality or undue preference, and the special duty of so treating through traffic at through rates. If the Governor General in Council is satisfied that any person has just ground of complaint against a railway administration for breach of either duty, he may refer the case to a Railway Commission for decision. Such a Commission is to be appointed only when there are cases to be referred to it, and it will be deemed to be dissolved as soon as it has decided those cases. It is to consist of a Law Commissioner who is to be a Judge of the High Court having jurisdiction in reference to European British subjects under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, in the place where the Governor General in Council has ordered the Commission to sit, and of two Lay Commissioners, of whom one must be an expert in railway business and one may be a representative of the mercantile community or any other person whom the Governor General in Council sees fit to appoint. The Commission so constituted may in any case referred to it make any order, by way of injunction, which may in the circumstances appear to the Commissioners to be suitable. If two of the Commissioners concur upon a question of fact, their decision on that question is to be conclusive. From other decisions of the Commissioners an appeal will lie to a bench of not less than three Judges of the High Court of which the Law Commissioner was a member or, from a decision of a Railway Commission in Burma, to such a bench of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal. Orders made by a Railway Commission are to be enforced by the High Court of which the Law Commissioner was a member as if they were orders made by the High Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction.

Sections 46 and 47, following English law, require railway administrations to keep open to the inspection of the public a book showing the rates for the time being charged for the carriage of animals and goods, and to comply with requisitions for details of gross charges made by and paid to them for the carriage of goods.

Clauses (b) and (c) of section 28 provide for the reference to Railway Commissions of other differences than such as relate to traffic facilities.

(15) Section 48.—This section will remove any doubt as to the validity of any existing rules, and provides that, when rules have once been published in the Gazette of India, they may be extended to a railway by a reference to that Gazette and an announcement of their adoption for the railway, without being again published at length in the Gazette.

(16) Section 49.—This section provides for the settlement by the Governor General in Council of differences between railway administrations respecting the use of any common terminus or line of rails where the differences are such as to be likely to affect the safety of the public.

(17) Sections 50, 51 and 52.—The effect of these sections will be to confer on railway companies domiciled in India the same privileges as are enjoyed by Indian railway companies domiciled in the United Kingdom.

(18) Section 55.—Some such clause is considered necessary for the purpose of covering the conditions which all railway administrations in India do in fact impose and in their quarterly handbooks of fares and rates publish for the information of the public.

(19) Sections 57, 58 and 59.—The first of these sections legalizes the existing practice with respect to the disposal of unclaimed property. The second and third of them have been suggested partly by existing practice, partly by the case of Eagleton v. The East Indian Railway Company (8 B. L. R. 581), and partly by the proposal to give railway receipts the same effect as bills of lading.

The proposal to give such an effect to railway receipts has not been adopted in the Bill, because railway administrations are understood to be averse to it and it is not justified by existing legislation elsewhere.

(20) Sections 60, 78 and 102.—The very common practice of falsely and fraudulently classifying goods is held to justify these clauses.

(21) Section 64.—This section requires every railway administration to reserve in every passenger-train at least one compartment of the lowest class for the exclusive use of females.

(22) Section 67.—The provisions of section 18 of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, respecting the preferential rights of ticket-holders have been omitted as being unnecessary and in practice unworkable. The carriage of troops on railways administered by companies is regulated by the contracts between the Government and the companies.

(23) Sections 70 and 110.—These sections prohibit the transfer of return tickets.

(24) Chapter VII.—This Chapter follows the rule embodied in section 10 of the Indian Railway Act, 1879. There have been very few complaints against the practical operation of this rule, which is based upon a judgment of the Bombay High Court reported at I. L. R. 3 Bom. 109; and, though the soundness of that judgment has been questioned, the Government of India, as at present advised, is of opinion that experience does not justify any material modification of existing legislation.

Section 73, respecting the carriage of animals, reproduces the substance of section 7 of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act of 1854; and section 75, following section 1 of the Carriers Act (1 Will. IV, c. 68), restricts the obligation of declaring the contents of parcels containing gold, silver and other precious articles to cases in which the value of the articles exceeds one hundred rupees.

Section 77 is designed to prevent the preferring of stale claims against railway administrations; section 79 saves certain military regulations; section 80 provides for suits for compensation for injury to through-booked traffic; and section 81 limits, substantially in accordance with the law of England, the liability of a railway administration in respect of accidents happening at sea to passengers, animals or goods which the administration has contracted to carry partly by railway and partly by sea.

(25) Section 94.—This section provides that penalties incurred by railway administrations must be recovered in a District Court at the suit of the Secretary of State for India in Council, and authorises the Governor General in Council to remit such penalties.

(26) Section 100.—The object of this section is to abate the nuisance caused by rolling-stock being kept standing on level-crossings.

(27) Sections 108 and 128.—In the framing of these sections regard has been had to both French and German law. The provisions of sections 31 and 32 of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, are, like the English bye-laws on which they were based (36 W. R. 726), ineffective for their purpose, the difficulty of proving fraud under the latter section, even when it clearly exists, being often found in practice to be insuperable.

(28) Section 131.—In this section it is proposed to deal with the question of the taxation of railways by municipal committees, cantonment committees, district boards and other like authorities. In the opinion of the Government of India the exemption which Guaranteed and State railways enjoy in some provinces from assessment to local rates on land should be extended to all railways throughout India. As regards municipal taxes, it is considered that such as have been levied hitherto in any municipality or cantonment may generally continue to be levied there, though possibly in a commuted form.

(29) Section 132.—The necessity of such a section was illustrated recently by the attachment, in the North-Western Provinces, at the instance of a private decree-holder, of the engine attached to a mail-train.

(30) Section 133.—The expansion of section 27 of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, has been suggested by a case in which a railway servant engaged in trade in contravention of rules which were binding on him and to the prejudice of the railway administration which he was serving.

(31) Section 134.—Much inconvenience to railway administrations in India is said to result from there being no means of summarily ejecting from railway buildings persons who have ceased to be entitled to occupy them.

(32) Section 141.—There have been instances of subordinate Courts objecting to the manager of a State railway appearing before them by deputy even where the attendance of the representative of the railway is required for purely formal purposes. There have also been many instances of great and unnecessary expense being imposed on railway administrations by reason of subordinate Courts refusing to allow petty prosecutions to be conducted by railway servants.

(33) Section 145.—This section is suggested by section 122 of the Bill.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

FINANCE.

Darjeeling, the 31st October 1888.

RESOLUTION.

THE Lieutenant-Governor is now in a position to review the actual financial results of the year 1886-87, the revised estimates for the year 1887-88, and the budget estimates for 1888-89. The Accountant-General's memorandum on the accounts of the first year has been received, and the Government of India have considered the estimates which the Lieutenant-Governor has formed of the financial position of this Government at the close of the past year, and of the funds at its disposal during the current year.

Accounts of 1886-87.

2. The actuals of 1886-87 furnished by the Accountant-General are compared in the following table with the revised estimate adopted in the Financial Resolution of the 24th December 1887 :—

3. In the Resolution of the 24th December 1887, it was shown that the year 1886-87 had opened with a credit balance of Rs. 14,70,000 that the revenues under all the heads might, during the year, amount to Rs. 4,40,12,000 ; and that the total expenditure during the year would probably not exceed Rs. 4,36,02,000, a credit balance of Rs. 18,80,000 being left at the close of the year. The actual result has been more favourable than this estimate by Rs. 1,19,000. The expenditure of the Irrigation Department fell short of the estimate by Rs. 1,63,000, while the receipts were also Rs. 8,000 less than had been expected. The operations of the Civil Department showed a net result worse by Rs. 36,000, as exhibited in the following table :—

4. The revised estimate made no allowance in favour of the Imperial Government for the surplus of sale proceeds of the Indian Law Reports over the cost of printing. These aggregated Rs. 28,000, and a credit for this amount has been given to Imperial by a debit against Provincial under Land Revenue. The Provincial portion of the survey and settlement charges exceeded the revised estimate by about Rs. 35,000. There were other adjustments between Imperial and Provincial, bringing in a loss of about Rs. 3,000 to the latter, so that the total net loss under Land Revenue compared with the revised estimate has been Rs. 66,000. The difference under Education is due to the elimination of charges debitable to local funds from the Provincial account. The differences under the remaining heads are unimportant and need not be noticed. The Provincial balance on the 31st March 1887 was Rs. 19,99,000.

Revised Estimate, 1887-88.

5. The financial year which has just expired was the first year of the quinquennial period for which a new contract has been made with the Government of India. The following table shows the revised estimate as submitted to the Government of India in March last, the estimates as passed by the Government of India, and the estimates as now adopted by the Government of Bengal :—

6. The revised estimates as now adopted under the Civil heads, except I and 3—Land Revenue, 6—Stamps, IX and 11—Forests, XVI and 19—Jails, 20—Police, 24—Medical, 30—Stationery and Printing, and XXV and 32—Miscellaneous, have been fixed on the basis of the actuals of twelve months as reported by the Accountant-General in his preliminary accounts of March 1887.

7. I and 3—Land Revenue.—The total Land Revenue receipts for the year 1887-88, as estimated by the Accountant-General when he submitted his estimate for the current year, amounted to Rs. 3,81,70,000, and this estimate has been raised by the Government of India to Rs. 3,82,00,000. The Comptroller-General's statements show that the total collections in 1887-88 amounted to Rs. 3,79,96,000. The 10 per cent. on collections from Government estates will have aggregated Rs. 3,95,000, so that the total Provincial share of Land Revenue for the year will not have exceeded ¼th of (Rs. 3,79,96,000—3,95,000)+Rs. 3,95,000, or Rs. 97,96,000. This amount has been taken as the revised estimate of Provincial Land Revenue (proper) for 1887-88.

The revised estimate, as submitted to the Government of India, allowed for the payment of Rs. 75,000 to "Imperial" on account of the excess of net earnings of the Eastern Bengal Railway over the contract assignment of 30 lakhs, and also for the payment of Rs. 1,59,000 to the Government of the North-Western Provinces in adjustment of their claim for arrears of duty on Shahjehanpore rum. This accounts for the difference under the Land Revenue adjustment between the original estimate of this Government and that of the Government of India. The deduction on account of excess net receipts of the Eastern Bengal Railway has been made by the Government of India under "XXVI—State Railways, gross earnings," and no allowance need therefore be made under "Land Revenue." As orders were issued by the Lieutenant-Governor for the adjustment of the claim of the Government of the North-Western Provinces before the close of the year 1887-88, the deduction of Rs. 1,59,000 from the Provincial share of Land Revenue of this Government will be maintained in the revised estimate as now adopted. The Accountant-General has advised that a refund of Rs. 5,836, or Rs. 6,000 in round numbers, will be made to Bengal on account of the unauthorized credit afforded to Imperial in 1885-86 for copying fees realized in court-fee stamps. A sum of Rs. 41,000 has been added on account of the Police charges of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, sanctioned in the Finance and Commerce Department No. 3837, dated the 24th October 1888, in order that the charges may be adjusted in the Provincial section of the accounts from 1887-88. The net payment to Imperial on account of all adjustments will thus amount to Rs. (3,70,000+1,59,000—6,000—41,000=) 4,82,000.

The preliminary accounts of March 1888, furnished by the Accountant-General, show that the total Land Revenue charges in 1887-88 amounted to Rs. 33,57,000. These do not probably include the survey charges transferred from the estimate of the Government of India. The latest estimate of the Surveyor-General of these charges is Rs. 68,000. This amount, added to the total charges shown in the preliminary account, will raise the revised estimate from Rs. 33,00,000 to Rs. 34,25,000.

8. 6—Stamps.—The preliminary account furnished by the Accountant-General does not show the value of stamp paper supplied to Bengal from the Central Store. A sum of Rs. 1,91,000 has been taken as the estimated cost of paper for the current year, and this may also be taken as the estimate for last year. The Provincial share will then amount to Rs. 1,43,000. The Provincial expenditure under the remaining heads amounted to Rs. 2,24,000. The revised estimate will stand at Rs. 3,67,000 against Rs. 3,64,000, the estimate reported to the Government of India.

9. IX and 11—Forests.—The preliminary accounts furnished by the Accountant-General show that the Provincial share of Forest receipts amounted to Rs. 2,88,000, and of Forest expenditure to Rs. 1,70,000. These figures are subject to considerable modifications. The estimate as passed by the Government of India will be retained.

10. XVI and 19—Jails.—The preliminary accounts of the Jail Department are also subject to considerable adjustments. Thus the receipts of 1886-87, when finally adjusted, rose from Rs. 6,19,000 in the preliminary account to Rs. 7,15,000 in the final account. The expenditure also rose from Rs. 16,44,000 to Rs. 16,66,000. The preliminary accounts of 1887-88 show that the receipts in that year were Rs. 6,55,000, and the expenditure Rs. 15,20,000. The actuals of 1886-87 will be taken.

11. 20—Police.—The preliminary accounts furnished by the Accountant-General show that the Provincial Police expenditure amounted to Rs. 47,88,000. A sum of Rs. 41,000, which represents the Police charges of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, has been added to this for reasons explained in paragraph 7 above. The revised estimate for 1887-88 will therefore be taken at Rs. 48,29,000.

12. 24—Medical.—The account of March 1888 shows that the total expenditure under this head in 1887-88 was Rs. 14,16,000, against Rs. 14,36,000 shown in the preliminary account of March 1887. The actual expenditure in 1886-87 after final adjustments amounted to Rs. 14,64,000. The revised estimate for 1887-88 will be taken at Rs. 14,50,000.

13. 30—Stationery and Printing.—The preliminary account of the Accountant-General does not include the value of stationery supplied from Central Stores. The cost in 1886-87 amounted to Rs. 5,41,000, and the estimate for 1888-89 is Rs. 5,45,000. A sum of Rs. 5,45,000 may be taken as the estimate for last year. The expenditure under other sub-heads amounted to Rs. 5,04,000, so that the revised estimate of total expenditure may be placed at Rs. 10,49,000, against Rs. 10,41,000 estimated by the Government of India.

14. XXV and 32—Miscellaneous.—The actuals under these heads undergo considerable adjustment before they are finally closed. The preliminary accounts show the "unclaimed deposits" to have been Rs. 74,580 against Rs. 3,60,000, the estimate for the year, and the "miscellaneous refunds" to have been Rs. 2,77,459 against the estimate of Rs. 10,000. The total receipts in 1886-87 amounted to Rs. 7,03,000, although they were shown in preliminary accounts to have been Rs. 3,68,000. The receipts in the preliminary accounts of 1887-88 are shown to be Rs. 4,44,000. The actual receipts after all adjustments will probably amount to Rs. 7,75,000, and the total expenditure to Rs. 3,00,000. These figures will stand as the revised estimate for 1887-88.

15. XXVI and 38—Railways.—The estimates of the Government of India are compared in the following table with those originally passed by the Government of Bengal :—

The Government of India have provisionally taken Rs. 3,50,000 as the excess of net receipts of the Eastern Bengal Railway over the contract assignment of 30 lakhs. In accordance with the instructions of the Government of India, the Manager of the Eastern Bengal System has recast the revised estimate passed by the Government of India and has shown separately the net receipts of the broad and metre-gauge sections of the Eastern Bengal System. The Manager's estimate shows that the excess of net receipts of the Eastern Bengal Railway over the contract assignment may be Rs. 2,84,000 :—

	Receipts. Rs.	Expenditure. Rs.	Net receipts. Rs.
Eastern Bengal Railway System—
Broad-gauge section (Eastern Bengal Railway)	63,37,000	30,53,000	32,84,000

Total ...	96,75,000	46,50,000	50,25,000

The returns of the Railway Department show that the actual gross receipts of the Eastern Bengal Railway System in 1887-88 will approximately have amounted to Rs. 95,67,000, against Rs. 96,75,000 estimated by the Government of India. The proportionate distribution of these receipts between broad and narrow-gauge sections will give for the Eastern Bengal Railway about Rs. 62,66,000, and for the other railways included in the narrow-gauge sections, Rs. 33,01,000. The estimate of working expenses as passed by the Government of India, and recast by the Manager of the Eastern Bengal Railway, will be retained, as no later information is available to modify it. The net receipts of the two sections (broad and narrow-gauge) will thus have amounted to Rs. 32,13,000 and Rs. 17,04,000, respectively, of which a sum of Rs. 2,13,000, being the excess of net receipts of the Eastern Bengal Railway over the assignment of 30 lakhs, is payable to Imperial. The returns of the Tirhoot and Nalhati Railways show that the actual gross receipts in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 18,51,000 and Rs. 97,000 respectively. The net receipts from all Railways, so far as the Provincial account is concerned, will have amounted to Rs. 55,37,000, against Rs. 54,95,000 estimated by the Government of India, thus—41—Miscellaneous Railway Expenditure.—The latest return of the Examiner of Public Works Accounts shows that the Miscellaneous Railway expenditure in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 68,000 against Rs. 70,000, the estimate originally adopted. The revised estimate will now be placed at Rs. 68,000.

16. XXIX and 42—Irrigation, Major Works.—The Government of India have passed the estimate as originally proposed by the Government of Bengal. The collection of water-rates during 1887-88, as compared with the estimate of the year, show, however, a decrease of more than 2½ lakhs, chiefly under Sone Canals. The statement received from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts shows that the total receipts will not have amounted to more than Rs. 11,03,000, against Rs. 13,58,000 originally estimated, and the working expenses to have been Rs. 15,04,000, against the estimate of Rs. 15,25,000. The figures now reported by the Examiner will be taken as the revised estimates for 1887-88.

The Examiner's statement also shows that the capital outlay on these works in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 5,17,000, against Rs. 7,50,000 provided for in the revised estimate. This will reduce the estimate of charges for interest by about Rs. 9,000 for 1888-89, and Rs. 5,000 for 1887-88.

17. XXX and 43—Irrigation Minor Works by Public Works Department.—The approximate account furnished by the Examiner of Public Works Accounts shows that the receipts under this head in 1887-88 aggregated Rs. 8,63,000, and the expenditure Rs. 15,18,000. The expenditure in the Civil Department was Rs. 2,000. The estimates will accordingly be modified.

18. XXXII and 45—Civil Works by Public Works Department.—The statement of the Examiner of Public Works Accounts shows that the total receipts under this head will approximately have amounted to Rs. 1,75,000, and the total expenditure to Rs. 27,61,000. These figures will be adopted as the revised estimates for 1887-88.

19. 45—Civil Works by Civil Officers.—The revised estimate, as originally submitted to the Government of India, provided Rs. 17,000 for contributions to Municipal and other Excluded Local Funds, and Rs. 5,000 for charges on account of ferries in districts in which the Local Self-Government Act had not been introduced. A sum of Rs. 2,000 was also provided for refunds of ferry receipts. The Government of India have raised the estimate to Rs. 87,000, of which Rs. 57,000 represents refunds of receipts wrongly credited under this head in 1886-87. The preliminary accounts show that these refunds aggregated Rs. 1,39,000, and that the other charges included under this head, exclusive of grants to Excluded Local Funds, amounted to Rs. 27,000. The estimate has now accordingly been raised to Rs. (1,39,000+27,000+17,000=) 1,83,000.

20. According to the revised estimate now adopted, the closing balance will stand at Rs. 32,47,000, against Rs. 35,99,000 anticipated by the Government of India when passing the estimate for the current year.

BUDGET ESTIMATE, 1888-89.

22. Land Revenue.—The Government of India have raised the estimate of total Land Revenue of the year 1888-89 from Rs. 3,82,00,000 to Rs. 3,82,60,000. As, however, the collections of last year only aggregated Rs. 3,79,96,000, the Lieutenant-Governor would not raise the estimate originally framed. The 10 per cent. on collections of Government estates has been estimated at Rs. 4,00,000, so that the Provincial share of Land Revenue (proper) may amount to $\frac{1}{4}$th of (Rs. 3,82,00,000 — 4,00,000) + 4,00,000, or Rs. 98,50,000, against Rs. 98,69,000 estimated by the Government of India. The adjustments between Imperial and Provincial will probably result in a net deduction of Rs. 5,19,000, as shown below:—

23. Salt.—The Provincial Salt revenue is recorded under the heads of Rents of Warehouses, Fines and forfeitures, and Miscellaneous The first head, which is the most important, represents the receipts from bonding warehouses. The contract assumed that these receipts would amount to Rs. 1,00,000. The revised estimate for 1887-88 amounts to Rs. 78,000, and the estimate for the current year is Rs. 89,000. The large decrease in 1887-88 was due to a reduction in the importation of Karkutch salt.

24. Stamps.—The total receipts from stamps were originally estimated by the Accountant-General at Rs. 1,35,10,000. The receipts in 1887-88 will probably have amounted to Rs. 1,38,15,000, against Rs. 1,34,63,000 obtained in the preceding year. The Government of India have adopted the estimate of the Local Government, amounting to Rs. 1,41,00,000, for the current year. The receipts in the first six months of the current year amounted to Rs. 73,61,416, against Rs. 68,94,470 obtained in the corresponding period of 1887-88, showing an increase of Rs. 4,66,946. The Lieutenant-Governor thinks that the estimate can safely be raised to Rs. 1,42,00,000. The Provincial share will amount to Rs. 1,06,50,000.

25. Excise.—The total Excise revenue will probably have amounted to Rs. 1,08,66,000 in 1887-88 against Rs. 1,00,00,000, the original estimate for the year. The latest district returns show that the receipts in the first six months of the current year were Rs. 2,10,629 in excess of the receipts realized in the corresponding period of last year. The estimate of Rs. 1,10,00,000 for the current year, which has been accepted by the Government of India, will be retained. The Provincial share will be Rs. 27,50,000.

26. Provincial Rates.—The receipts from "Public Works cess" will have amounted to Rs. 38,20,000 against Rs. 38,49,000, the revised estimate originally adopted. The "rates levied for the management of Wards' and Attached Estates" will have aggregated Rs. 1,03,000, and the "proportionate cost of establishment for collecting the cesses recovered by deduction from road cess" amounted to Rs. 3,04,000. The revised estimate of total receipts under this head thus amounts to Rs. 42,27,000. The rates for the management of the Burdwan estate were in arrears, and were probably all recovered in 1887-88. There is no probability that the receipts on this account in 1888-89 will amount to the receipts of 1887-88, or that the original estimate of Rs. 81,000 will be exceeded. The original estimate of total receipts amounting to Rs. 42,03,000, which has also been adopted by the Government of India, will stand.

27. Customs.—The Provincial Customs revenue consists of "warehouse and wharf rents," of "fees for the registration of cargo-boats and for the attendance of preventive officers on holidays and after the usual hours," and of sale-proceeds of under-valued goods. The estimate of Rs. 62,000 against Rs. 60,000, the revised estimate for the current year, will stand.

28. Assessed Taxes.—The estimate of the Government of India provided for an increase of one lakh over the revised estimate for last year. The receipts in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 37,38,000, and for 1888-89 they may be estimated at Rs. 38,38,000. An irregular practice was found to have arisen under which the pay of extra peons employed on the execution of distress warrants for the recovery of arrears of income-tax and the cost of contingencies were realized by Collectors, only savings from defaulting assessees being credited to Government. It has now been ruled that the costs should be credited in full and the actual charges drawn on bills. A grant of Rs. 11,000 has been placed at the disposal of the Board of Revenue to meet the cost of temporary establishments and contingencies for the Warrant Department of the Collectors' offices, and a corresponding amount may be added on the receipt side. The total receipts under assessed taxes are now estimated at Rs. 38,49,000. The Provincial share will therefore be Rs. 19,24,000.

29. Forests.—The Provincial share of the receipts under this head is estimated at Rs. 3,65,000, against Rs. 3,50,000 for last year. The increase is chiefly due to the inclusion of the receipts for the Bengal share of drift timber operations on the Gunduck river.

30. Registration.—The Government of India have raised the estimate of the Local Government from Rs. 10,00,000 to Rs. 10,20,000. The receipts in 1887-88 will probably have amounted to Rs. 10,18,000. The estimate of the Government of India will be adopted.

31. Law and Justice (Judicial Courts.)—The fees, fines and forfeitures of Judicial Courts are estimated at Rs. 7,75,000 against Rs. 7,77,000, the latest estimate for 1887-88.

32. Jails.—The Inspector-General of Jails originally estimated the total receipts for the current year at Rs. 7,73,000. The estimate was reduced to Rs. 7,45,000 with reference to the actuals of 1886-87 which amounted to Rs. 7,45,000. The estimate for the current year is fixed at that sum.

33. Police.—The Accountant-General's original estimate of Provincial receipts under this head was Rs. 2,78,000, which included a provision of Rs. 25,000 for sale-proceeds of unclaimed stray cattle and fees on such cattle realized in districts where the Local Self-Government Act has not been introduced. It is anticipated that these receipts may amount to Rs. 77,000. The estimate has accordingly been raised to Rs. 3,30,000. As under orders of the Government of India, Military Department, the cost of Cantonment Police will be recovered from the Cantonment Funds, a sum of Rs. 11,000, representing the existing charges on this account, will be added to the estimate of Provincial receipts. The total will stand at Rs. 3,41,000.

34. Marine.—The contract assignment for Provincial Marine receipts is Rs. 8,08,000. The Chittagong pilotage receipts are now adjusted under this head, and there has lately been greater activity in trade. The receipts in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 9,10,000. The estimate of Rs. 9,00,000 for 1888-89, which has been passed by the Government of India, will be raised by Rs. 25,000 on account of the sale-proceeds of the Cassandra and the Undaunted which were not taken into account when the estimates were framed.

35. Education.—The estimate of receipts, as passed by the Government of India, amounts to Rs. 5,25,000 against Rs. 6,63,000, the latest estimate for 1887-88. The estimate for 1887-88 includes about Rs. 1,30,000 on account of refunds of charges paid by Government on behalf of District Boards in 1886-87. The estimate of the Government of India will be adopted.

36. Medical.—The estimate of the receipts under this head for the current year was placed at Rs. 1,56,000 with reference to the actuals of 1886-87. The average receipts in the four years 1882-86 were Rs. 1,42,000, and the actuals in 1887-88 will have amounted to not more than Rs. 1,31,000. The hospital receipts last year were only Rs. 48,000, against Rs. 73,000 obtained in 1886-87. It will not be safe to place the estimate for the current year at a higher figure than Rs. 1,40,000, the amount which the Government of India passed as the revised estimate for 1887-88.

37. Scientific and other Minor Departments.—The Accountant-General's original estimate of receipts under this head was Rs. 1,38,000, of which Rs. 1,17,000 represented receipts from cinchona plantations. An improved method of extracting the alkaloids from cinchona bark has been adopted, and an increase of Rs. 27,000 in receipts is anticipated. The cinchona receipts in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 1,25,000, and there is every probability of the Superintendent's estimate being obtained. The estimate of Rs. 1,65,000 for total receipts originally passed by this Government will be retained.

38. Superannuation.—The Provincial receipts under this head consist chiefly of contributions received from officers employed on foreign service. The total receipts in 1887-88 will probably have been Rs. 46,000, and a like amount has been taken as the estimate for the current year.

39. Stationery and Printing.—The Government of India have passed the estimate of the Government of Bengal, amounting to Rs. 1,81,500. It will stand at Rs. 1,82,000 in round numbers.

40. Miscellaneous.—The total receipts under this head in 1887-88 will probably have, after all adjustments, amounted to Rs. 7,75,000. The estimate for the current year may be raised from Rs. 7,08,000 to Rs. 7,50,000.

41. State Railways (gross earnings).—The estimates of State Railways, as passed by the Government of India, have been recast, showing separately the receipts and working expenses of the broad and narrow-gauge sections of the Eastern Bengal System. The estimates are compared below with the revised estimates for 1887-88 as adopted in paragraph 15 above :—

The Manager of the Tirhoot State Railway has explained that the decrease in the receipts from that line has been due to the circumstance that dealers in produce have held back their stocks under an apprehension of scarcity, and that this apprehension being now removed, a considerable expansion in revenue may be anticipated. The Lieutenant-Governor, nevertheless, deems it prudent to adopt the estimate of the Government of India.

The total gross receipts will then be Rs. 1,15,37,000, thus:—

42. Irrigation Major Works (direct receipts).—The estimate for 1888-89 has been fixed at the same amount as the original estimate for 1887-88, viz. Rs. 13,58,000. It is, however, not expected that the collections of water-rates on the Sone Canals will reach the current demand, as the rate-payers have held back, considering that large remissions of the dues would be sanctioned as one of the consequences of the report of the late Commission of Enquiry. The total receipts in 1887-88 will not have amounted to more than Rs. 11,03,000. It will not be safe to place the estimate for 1888-89 at a higher figure than 12 lakhs.

43. Irrigation Minor Works.—The estimate of receipts by Public Works Department as passed by this Government has been accepted by the Government of India, and will stand.

The annual demands for recoveries on account of zemindari embankments are fixed, and amount to Rs. 1,02,198. The total receipts for 1888-89, which are collected by civil officers, are estimated at Rs. 1,03,000, which includes Rs. 700 on account of sale of grass in Chumparun.

44. Civil Works.—The estimate of receipts made by the Public Works Department is Rs. 1,75,000, and that of those made by Civil Officers, Rs. 2,13,000. In the budget, as originally passed for 1887-88, no provision was made for ferry receipts and charges, as the question of introducing the Local Self-Government Act from 1st April 1887 into all the districts not excluded by section 1 of the Act was under consideration. The Act has not been extended to the districts of Lohardugga, Hazaribagh, Manbhoom, Singbhoom, Dumka, Darjeeling and Chittagong Hill Tracts, and provision will be made in the Provincial budget for the receipts and charges on account of ferries in these districts, as well as for those of some ferries plying wholly or partly within municipal limits in the districts into which the Act has been introduced. In certain districts, too, it will not be possible to transfer to the Boards the entire proceeds from the ferries which have been made over to them for management. The Provincial ferry receipts in 1887-88 will probably have amounted to Rs. 2,29,000. The estimate for next year amounts to Rs. 2,11,000. The cemetery receipts are estimated at Rs. 2,000. The estimate of total receipts by Civil Officers under Civil Works will therefore be Rs. 2,13,000.

Expenditure.

45. Refunds and Drawbacks follow the proportions assigned for the revenues in the contract. The amount chargeable in 1887-88 may be taken at Rs. 1,52,000. The estimate for the current year has been placed at Rs. 1,48,000.

46. Assignments and Compensations.—The only sub-head under this head, which is Provincial, is "Malikana," which was formerly classed under Land Revenue, and has been transferred here in accordance with Note 78 to Appendix H of the Civil Account Code, Volume II. The allowances in 1887-88 will probably have amounted to Rs. 1,89,000, but the average expenditure in the preceding three years was Rs. 1,47,000. The increase in 1887-88 was due to the payment of arrears, chiefly in Monghyr, Backergunge, and Durbhunga. The estimate of Rs. 1,49,000 for 1888-89, passed by this Government, and accepted by the Government of India, will be adopted.

47. Land Revenue.—The estimate for the current year is thus compared with the revised estimate for 1887-88—

	Revised estimate, 1887-88, passed by the Government of India.	Revised estimate, 1887-88, adopted in this Resolution.	Estimate, 1888-89.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

2. Management of Government estates ...	2,61,000	3,53,000	3,30,000
3. Survey and settlement charges	1,71,000	1,52,000	2,96,000
4. Land Records and Agriculture ...	84,000	88,000	66,000
Total ...	33,00,000	34,25,000	35,90,000

The increase under the first head is due to the general development of administrative charges, to the transfer of Rs. 20,000 from the Miscellaneous budget to provide for the payment of municipal rates and taxes on Government buildings occupied by Revenue offices, and to increased provision for the process-serving establishment. The increase under the third head is chiefly due to the increase of Surveyor-General's estimate from Rs. 68,000 in 1887-88 to Rs. 1,72,000 in 1888-89. The estimate as passed by the Government of India thus amounts to Rs. 35,90,000. This will be increased by Rs. 5,000 to provide for the temporary establishment sanctioned in Government order No. 1735—750, dated the 21st May 1888, for certificate work of the Majnamutha and Jellamutha estates in Midnapore, and by Rs. 2,000 on account of the additional establishments sanctioned in Government order No. 2238—286Agri., dated the 4th July 1888, for the Director of Land Records and Agriculture. The total grant will be Rs. 35,97,000.

48. Stamps.—The Provincial portion of the expenditure under this head in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 3,67,000, and the estimate for the current year has been passed by the Government of India for Rs. 3,64,000. The reduction of the rate of discount, sanctioned in Government order No. 1380, dated 29th March 1888, on the sale of court-fee stamps of higher values than one rupee, will, it is anticipated, bring in a saving of Rs. 26,000, and will reduce the Provincial share of expenditure under Stamps by Rs. 18,000. The estimate as originally passed by the Local Government, amounting to Rs. (3,64,000—18,000=)3,46,000, will stand.

49. Excise.—The total expenditure of the Excise Department for the current year has been estimated at Rs. 4,46,000 against Rs. 4,24,000, the amount probably expended in 1887-88. The Board have submitted fresh proposals, which would increase the expenditure to Rs. 4,50,000. On this a reduction of Rs. 2,000, in round numbers, will be made on account of the sum made over to the Patna Municipality for metalling the Kumrar road, which connects the Patna distillery with the Durgah road and thereby with the City of Patna. The grant will stand at Rs. 4,48,000, thus :—

	Budget provision.	Grant now sanctioned.

Total ...	4,46,000	4,48,000
Provincial ...	1,11,000	1,12,000

The expenditure is divided between Imperial and Provincial in the proportion of three-fourths and one-fourth. The Provincial share for the current year will be Rs. 1,12,000.

50. Provincial Rates.—Before the enactment of the Local Self-Government Act, the cost of collecting the cesses was finally recorded in the books of the District Road Funds, the Government share of the cost of collecting the Public Works cess being adjusted under contributions from Provincial to Local. The cost of collecting the cesses is now recorded in the Provincial account, and is estimated at Rs. 2,91,000. The estimate has been passed by the Government of India, and will stand.

51. Customs.—The estimate of total expenditure of the Customs Department, as passed by the Government of India, amounts to Rs. 5,39,000. The estimate makes no provision for the additional establishment required for carrying out the provisions of the Petroleum Act, II of 1888. A temporary establishment, costing Rs. 300 per mensem, was employed during the first 4½ months of the current year, and since then a permanent establishment, at a cost of Rs. 553-4, has since been sanctioned under the orders of the Board of Revenue. The estimate will be raised by Rs. 6,000. As this is a new charge, for which no provision was made in the Provincial contract, an application has been made to the Government of India for an additional assignment to the Provincial Revenues to meet the expenditure, but pending the receipt of orders no credit for an allotment will be taken under Land Revenue.

52. Assessed Taxes.—The total expenditure for the collection of income-tax was originally estimated at Rs. 1,44,000. The expenditure in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 1,52,000. On the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, sanction has already been accorded to the employment of establishment at a cost of Rs. 1,51,000 for the current year, and to this has been added Rs. 11,000 for temporary establishment and contingencies of the Collectors' Warrant Department, as stated in paragraph 28 above, and Rs. 6,475 to meet the initial charges and the increase of establishment sanctioned in connection with the transfer of the Income-tax Office from the Calcutta Collectorate to the Custom House. The estimate will then stand at Rs. 1,69,000, and the Provincial share at Rs. 84,000, as shown below:—

	Rs.
District offices	1,00,554
Collector's office, Calcutta	40,072
Increase of establishment for transfer of the Income-tax Office from the Calcutta Collectorate to the Custom House	5,496
Purchase of furniture for ditto	979
Commissioners' offices	4,380
Board's office	5,976
Warrant Department	11,000
Add for rounding	543
Total ...	1,69,000
Provincial share ...	84,000

The Lieutenant-Governor has also sanctioned an expenditure of Rs. 4,098 for making additions and alterations to the Custom House premises for the accommodation of the Income-tax Office. The work will, however, be undertaken by the Public Works Department, and the charge will be adjusted in the books of that Department.

53. Forests.—The expenditure of the Forest Department for the current year is estimated at Rs. 4,38,000, against Rs. 4,22,000 for 1887-88. The increase is chiefly attributable to a provision made for the Bengal share of drift timber operations in the Gunduck river.

54. Registration.—The expenditure of the Registration Department for 1888-89 is estimated by the Government of India at Rs. 5,70,000 against Rs. 5,78,000, the amount probably expended in 1887-88. The estimate of the Government of India does not include any provision for the payment of municipal rates and taxes on buildings occupied by the Registration offices. A provision of Rs. 3,000 was made on this account by the Local Government. The estimate will thus stand at Rs. 5,73,000 and the Provincial share at Rs. 2,86,000.

55. General Administration.—The total expenditure in 1887-88 may be assumed to have amounted to Rs. 15,39,000, while the estimate for the current year as originally passed by the Local Government amounted to Rs. 15,33,000. An increase of establishment, costing Rs. 4,000, has since been sanctioned in consequence of the transfer of the Marine Department from the Financial to the Public Works side of the Secretariat. The salaries of the establishment of the Marine Department will continue to be adjusted under General Administration. The estimate under this head will accordingly be raised by Rs. 4,000, and to meet this extra cost a corresponding reduction has been made in the Public Works grant for 1888-89. A further increase of Rs. 1,000 will be made under this head to provide for the pay of two assistants lately sanctioned in the Statistical Department, to enable that Department to submit to the Government of India certain quarterly returns of the river-borne trade of Calcutta. The total grant under this head will stand at Rs 15,38,000.

56. Law and Justice (Judicial).—The estimate of expenditure under this head as passed by the Government of India amounts to Rs. 81,39,000 against Rs. 79,41,000, the probable expenditure of 1887-88. There was one Judge absent on furlough during 1887-88, and the appointment was not filled up. A provision of Rs. 57,000 has been made in the estimate for 1888-89 for 19 additional Munsifs, and Rs. 33,000 for their establishment. A grant of Rs. 20,000 has also been provided under this head by transfer from the Miscellaneous budget to provide for the payment of municipal rates and taxes on buildings occupied by judicial courts. Since the estimate has been passed, a charge of Rs. 3,528 has been sanctioned, irrespective of budget provision, on account of establishment and office rent for the additional Judge, appointed for the trial of cases arising out of the acquisition of lands required for Kidderpore Docks. The appointment of two additional Munsifs for six months, and one for three months, has been sanctioned at an estimated cost of Rs. 3,000 for the districts of Hooghly and Sewan, respectively. A provision of Rs. 6,000 will also be made for an additional Subordinate Judge and his establishment, which it is proposed to appoint for the district of Bhagulpore. A re-grant of the savings in the grant for contract and other contingencies of the District Judge's court, Nuddea, for 1887-88, amounting to about Rs. 1,000, has been sanctioned for utilization during the current year. The estimate of total expenditure which would thus have risen from Rs. 81,39,000 to Rs. 81,53,000, will be reduced by Rs. 2,000, the amount transferred to the Public Works Department for the construction of racks in the Court of the Judge of Burdwan.

57. Law and Justice (Jails).—The estimate as originally passed by the Local Government provided for a grant of Rs. 10,81,000 under "Jails" and of Rs. 6,19,000 under "Jail manufactures." The expenditure in past years has been as follows :—

	Jails.	Jail manufacture.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs	Rs.
1882-83	10,32,000	6,31,000	16,63,000
1883-84	11,06,000	5,91,000	16,97,000
1884-85	10,90,000	5,87,000	16,77,000
1885-86	11,78,000	5,65,000	17,43,000
1886-87	10,97,000	5,69,000	16,66,000
1887-88 (approximate)	.....	.....	16,66,000

In view of the fact that there has actually been a reduction under district jails owing to the abolition of the Bhagulpore Jail and the reduction of the status of 14 other district jails, the Lieutenant-Governor would reduce the estimate of total expenditure to Rs. 16,75,000.

58. Police.—The estimate for 1888-89 provides for an expenditure of Rs. 47,12,000 against Rs. 48,29,000, the latest estimate for 1887-88. The estimate for 1887-88 includes a provision of about Rs. 80,000 for refunds of pound receipts wrongly credited in 1886-87. The original estimate of Rs. 47,12,000 for the current year, which is exclusive of the charges on account of the Salt Police in Orissa, but includes the salaries and contingencies of the force employed in cantonments, will be retained. The estimate makes no provision for the Police charges of the Eastern Bengal State Railway. As these charges have now been provincialized, a sum of Rs. 41,000 must be added to the original estimate. The estimate will therefore be raised to Rs. 47,53,000.

59. Marine.—The estimate as passed by the Local Government provided for an expenditure of Rs. 9,91,000. but the Government of India have reduced it to Rs. 9,60,000, the reduction being chiefly under the head of "Pilotage and Pilot establishment." Since the budget has been passed, an application has been received for a special allotment of three lakhs for the purchase of a new vessel to replace the Undaunted. As this vessel has been condemned, a provision of three lakhs will be made under this head to enable the purchase being made as soon as possible. The budget, as passed by Government, includes a provision of Rs. 3,000 to meet the anticipated deficit of the Balasore Port Fund. It appears that the Port Fund closed the year 1887-88 with a deficit of Rs. 22,829, and that no portion of the grant of Rs. 20,000 sanctioned to cover this deficit was drawn in 1887-88. It is also anticipated that the deficit for the year 1888-89 may amount to Rs. 7,036, so that the total amount required to cover the deficit during the current year will amount to Rs. 30,000, and a grant of this amount will be provided for under this head. The total grant for Marine will then stand at Rs. 13,18,000, of which Rs. 4,00,000 will be required for the purchase of two vessels to replace the Cassandra and the Undaunted.

60. Education.—The total Provincial expenditure on Education in 1887-88 will have amounted to Rs. 24,14,000, and the estimate for the current year, including an increased provision of Rs. 3,000 for the training of gurus, amounts to Rs. 24,16,000. This provision, it has been pointed out by the Director of Public Instruction, will not be sufficient to meet all the building grants to be made during the year, the increase of salaries of teachers and contingencies of the Art School in Calcutta, and the pay and establishment of two Mahomedan Assistant Inspectors whose appointment is under the consideration of Government. A sum of Rs. 30,000 will be added to the estimate originally passed, and the grant placed at Rs. 24,46,000 for the current year.

61. Medical.—The expenditure under this head has been estimated at Rs. 14,83,000. The estimate is susceptible of reduction with reference to the expenditure of 1887-88, which probably will not have amounted to more than Rs. 14,50,000. The estimate may be placed at Rs. 14,70,000, including a provision of Rs. 1,522 for grants to the Barrackpore and Dinapore Cantonments for two years, 1887-88 and 1888-89, on account of the vaccination and dispensary charges of the Cantonments, which the funds are unable to meet.

62. Political.—The political charges, exclusive of those connected with special Political missions and the maintenance of Political refugees and detenus, have been provincialized with an allotment of Rs. 21,000, with effect from the commencement of the current financial year. These charges for the current year are estimated at Rs. 21,000.

63. Scientific and other Minor Departments.—The estimate of Rs. 3,38,000 under this head includes a provision of Rs. 15,000 for the extension of the Palm-house and other miscellaneous improvements in the Botanic Gardens at Seebpore. As the expenditure is to be finally adjusted in the Public Works accounts, the grant will be removed from this head. The grant, on the other hand, will be increased by Rs. 1,000 to provide for incidental charges connected with the collection of specimens of Bengal arts and industries for transmission to the Poona Exhibition.

64. The Superannuation charges may be taken to have amounted to Rs. 12,79,000 in 1887-88, and the estimate for the current year has been placed by the Government of India at a like amount. The figure will stand.

65. Stationery and Printing.—The expenditure under this head is estimated at Rs. 10,65,000 against Rs. 10,49,000, the amount probably expended in 1887-88. An increase of Rs. 4,464 on account of temporary establishment has been provisionally sanctioned for the Stationery and Form Branches. Increases are also anticipated under the heads of Stationery purchased in the country and Printing at Private Presses. The estimate of Rs. 10,65,000 will be retained.

66. Miscellaneous.—The estimate of Rs. 1,97,000 under this head has been raised to Rs. 2,17,000 to provide for a grant of Rs. 20,000 sanctioned to the National Association in aid of the funds raised by them for the construction of a zenana hospital in Calcutta.

67. Famine Relief.—A grant of Rs. 15,000 has already been sanctioned for gratuitous relief in Orissa. The sum will accordingly be entered under this head. It is however too early to assert with any certainty that this grant will not have to be increased, or to make any estimate of what may have to be expended on this account. Both from Orissa and from Behar the Lieutenant-Governor has recently received very gloomy anticipations, but it is even yet not too late for these to be falsified by a fall of rain.

68. Railways.—The estimates as passed by the Government of India, and recast by the Public Works Department of this Government, will be adopted except under 41—Miscellaneous Railway Expenditure, which has been raised from Rs. 70,000 to Rs. 93,000 to meet the cost of the survey of a line of railway from Sarai Station on the Tirhoot State Railway to Somastipore, and of a line from Durbhunga to Sitamarhee.

69. Irrigation.—The estimates as passed by the Government of India have been accepted by the Public Works Department of this Government, and will stand except that made under the sub-head of "Interest." The estimate under this sub-head will, as explained in paragraph 16 above, be reduced by Rs. 9,000. The estimate of the Government of India provides for a grant of Rs. 2,25,000 for the completion of the Orissa Coast Canal, but no allotment has been made to Provincial to meet this charge. The estimate of the work, which was taken into consideration at the time of the settlement of the last Provincial contract, was Rs. 41,16,200. A revised estimate for the work, amounting to Rs. 44,74,941, has been received, and is under consideration of the Public Works Department. When the decision of the Public Works Department on this estimate is communicated to the Financial Department, an application will be submitted to the Government of India for a special allotment to meet the excess charge. Pending the orders of the Government of India, no credit for an allotment will be taken in the budget.

70. Civil Works.—The grant for civil works by Public Works Department was fixed at Rs. 40,00,000. This has subsequently been reduced to Rs. 39,13,000 by the following additions and deductions:—

	Rs.	Rs.
As originally fixed		40,00,000
Add—
Grant for additional accommodation to the Bhowanipore Lunatic Asylum		13,196
Grant for the extension of the Palm-house of the Botanical Gardens, Seebpore		15,000
Grant for the construction of racks in the Court of the Judge of Burdwan		1,900
Grant for the repairs of the Hemtapara road in the Bhootan Dooars		1,500
For additions and alterations to the Custom House premises for the accommodation of Income-tax Office ...		4,098
		40,35,694
Deduct—
Grant to the Baraset Board	1,136
Grant for increase of establishment in the Marine Branch of the Secretariat transferred to the Public Works Department	4,000
Grant to the District Board, Nuddea, for feeder roads to Majergram station of the Bengal Central Railway	2,500
Grant on account of transfer of roads to the 24-Pergunnahs District Board	82,163
Grant to the Jessore District Board ...	18,659
Grant to the Hooghly District Board ...	14,684
		1,23,142
Total grant ...		39,12,552
Or in round numbers ...		39,13,000

The estimate of civil works by the Civil Department amounts to Rs. 30,000. This will be raised by Rs. 2,000 to provide for the payment of Rs. 2,343 to the Patna Municipality for metalling the road connecting the Patna distillery with the Durgah road, and by Rs. 1,000 to meet an additional grant of Rs. 1,136 to the Burial Board sanctioned since the general estimate has been passed.

71. Contributions.—A grant of Rs. 10,63,000 was provided by the Local Government for contributions and grants to District and other Incorporated Local Funds. It will be sufficient if a provision of Rs. 7,30,000 is made under this head.

72. Provincial Deficit.—The opening balance of the year was Rs. 32,47,000. According to the estimate originally framed, it was expected that the year would close with a Provincial credit balance of Rs. 21,06,000. According to the estimate now adopted, the closing balance will be Rs. 22,92,000. The balance will thus be reduced by Rs. 9,55,000, and this represents the excess of the expenditure of the year over its receipts.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution be submitted to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, for information.

Ordered also, that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to the Board of Revenue, to all Commissioners of Divisions, to the Accountant-General, to the Inspectors-General of Civil Hospitals, Police, Jails and Registration, to the Director of Public Instruction, to the Conservator of Forests, to the Port Officer, Calcutta, to the Superintendent of the Botanical Gardens, and to all Departments of this Government for information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

COLMAN MACAULAY,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

BENGAL DISTRESS RELIEF FUND.

THE following correspondence is published for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Dated 6th November 1888. Secy. to the Government of Bengal.

No. 268T—R, dated Darjeeling, the 28th October 1888.

From—P. NOLAN, ESQ., Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Revenue Dept. (Famine),
To—The Honorary Secretary, Bengal Distress Relief Fund.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated the 4th October 1888, forwarding, for the consideration and approval of the Lieutenant-Governor, a set of rules for the working of the Bengal Distress Relief Fund. In reply, I am to state that the Lieutenant-Governor entirely approves the rules, which appear to have been drawn up by the Trustees with much care and judgment.

2. Some applications have already been made by the Government to the Trustees for funds to be spent on relief of distress, and it will probably be necessary to forward similar requests hereafter.

3. This correspondence will be published in an early issue of the Calcutta Gazette.

BENGAL DISTRESS RELIEF FUND.

Dated Calcutta, the 4th October 1888.

From—S. E. J. CLARKE, ESQ., Honorary Secretary, Bengal Distress Relief Fund,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

THE Trustees of the Bengal Distress Relief Fund direct me to submit, for the consideration and approval of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, a body of rules for the working of the Fund, prepared by the Honorary Secretary, and passed by them at their meeting on Monday last, 1st October; and in doing so, to explain to His Honour the circumstances which have called for such action on the part of the Trustees.

Hon'ble H. J. Reynolds, Officiating Chairman.
Sir A. Wilson, KT.
Hon'ble Rajah Doorga Churn Law, C.I.E.
H. W. Hallett, Esq.

In submitting with my letter of 22nd of July 1886 the report of the general operations of the Inundations Distress Relief Fund, the Committee of that Fund suggested that the balance of the Fund should be invested so as to form the "nucleus of a Distress Fund, to be applied promptly on the occurrence of such calamities as famines or inundations in Bengal." This suggestion commended itself to His Honour Sir Rivers Thompson, who was pleased, in your No. 1964—67Fam., dated 16th August 1886, to accord to it his sanction. His Honour also approved of a further suggestion made by the Committee that the Distress Relief Fund thus formed should be under the management of four Trustees, that is, a Member of the Board of Revenue, the President of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the President of the British Indian Association, and the Master of the Calcutta Trades' Association. Of the Board thus formed, it was ruled that the Member of the Board of Revenue, in charge of the Miscellaneous Revenue Department, should act as Member and as President of the Board.

The suggestion of the Committee thus approved by the Lieutenant-Governor was confirmed by a general meeting of the subscribers to the Fund held on the 27th August 1886. Since then the operations of the Fund have been confined to the recovery of balances from the various districts to which grants had been made. The position of the Fund is as under:—

Government securities to the value of Rs. 20,000 purchased on the 14th April 1886.
Similar securities to the value of Rs. 4,000 purchased on 27th July 1887.
Cash in hand at date Rs. 5,711-12-1.

On the 1st of November next, interest will accrue to the amount of about Rs. 466, so that in round numbers the Fund may be taken to amount to Rs 30,000.

Fortunately, during the past two years, no occasion has arisen to call for the assistance of the Fund. Of late, however, the accounts in the public papers and the publication of various district reports in the Calcutta Gazette appear to show that unhappily severe distress may be experienced at different points in the provinces under the administration of His Honour. Should an appeal to the public become necessary, it appeared to be desirable to have ready at hand a machinery capable of expanding, at short notice, to the proportions of a general charitable movement. At the same time the existence of what the Trustees hope may prove a permanent fund for the relief of distress suggested the expediency of placing before District Officers the details of the organisation of the fund as a useful guide, should it be necessary for them to supplement local efforts for relief, or to seek for outside help and

There is another side of the matter which has not escaped the attention of the Board of Trustees. If the Fund be placed upon the basis of a recognised public institution, it will, at all times, commend itself to the attention of the generous and charitably disposed amongst the public generally, and besides receiving subscriptions at special times of crisis may also at any time be strengthened by donations, either in cash, or by gift, by will or otherwise. Thus in adopting the rules now submitted, the Trustees have had an equal regard to future as well as present possible contingencies.

In commending the rules to His Honour's favourable consideration, I am to say that if, in His Honour's opinion, occasion has arisen for the services of the Distress Relief Fund, the Trustees are prepared to act on the power given them under the rules of granting immediate relief, or of forming a general movement to aid existing distress, as His Honour may consider best suited to present circumstances.

In conclusion—and should His Honour approve the rules as submitted—I am to solicit the favour of their being published, together with this letter and His Honour's reply, in an early number of the Calcutta Gazette. Further, should it be necessary in Sir Stuart Bayley's opinion to make immediate grants from the Fund, I am to ask that the Board in making such grants may have the advantage of consulting with yourself as to their extent and application.

BENGAL DISTRESS RELIEF FUND.

Draft of proposed Rules passed at a Meeting of the Board of Trustees held on Monday, 1st October 1888.

NAME.

1. This Fund shall be known as the Bengal Distress Relief Fund.

OBJECT.

2. The object of the Fund shall be the alleviation, by grants of money or otherwise, of well authenticated distress from inundations, failure of the crops, or other general cause in any portion of the territories administered by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

FUNDS.

3. The Bengal Distress Relief Fund shall consist—first, of the unexpended balance of the Inundations Distress Relief Fund of 1885; second, of the unexpended balances of grants to the various districts made from this Fund and recovered from the districts; and, third, of subscriptions received from time to time from generous and charitably disposed persons, or in response to a general appeal to the sympathies and aid of the public at large.

4. The Fund being so far as possible a permanent fund, subscriptions and donations in its aid will be thankfully received at any time and duly acknowledged in the public newspapers.

5. When not required for the active relief of distress, the moneys of the Fund shall, to as large an extent as possible, be invested in the purchase of Government securities, which securities shall remain in deposit with the Bank of Bengal.

6. Funds for the immediate work of relief shall be provided at the discretion of the Trustees in the case of need arising by the sale of a portion of the securities belonging to the Fund.

7. When an Executive Committee, as hereinafter provided for, shall have been formed, it shall be within the competency of such Committee to exercise the power conferred on the Trustees by the preceding rule.

8. If subscriptions and donations provide funds sufficient for relief operations by the Executive Committee, resort shall not be had to the investments of the Fund which, as a rule, shall be regarded as a means for affording prompt relief in cases of emergency and at the outbreak of distress, and in all other cases as a reserve to secure the permanency of the Fund.

9. As soon as a General Committee shall be formed, it shall be its first duty to invite aid from the general public.

10. All subscriptions and donations to the Fund shall be deemed to have been made in aid of its objects generally.

CONSTITUTION.

11. When, happily, there is no distress requiring the active operations of the Fund, its control shall be vested in a body of four Trustees, namely, the Member of the Board of Revenue for the Lower Provinces of Bengal, in charge of the Miscellaneous Revenue Department, the President of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the President of the British Indian Association, and the Master of the Calcutta Trades' Association, and the first of these shall be ex-officio Chairman of the Board.

The Secretary of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce may, with the permission of that body, act as Secretary to the Fund, and in case of his not so acting, the Trustees may appoint the Secretary of any of the other public bodies named above Honorary Secretary of 12. When the Government of Bengal shall notify to the Board of Trustees the existence in any part of the Bengal Provinces of distress requiring assistance from the Fund, the Board shall, at a meeting of the leading members of the different communities, to be called by the Chairman, appoint a general Committee to be called the "General Committee of the Bengal Distress Relief Fund." Such Committee shall consist of any number, not exceeding fifty (50) of the principal citizens of Calcutta, and a number, not exceeding fifty (50), of the leading residents of the mofussil.

13. As soon as the General Committee shall have been appointed, it shall hold a meeting and appoint an Executive Committee of not less than seven, or more than eleven members including the Chairman.

14. The General Committee may, at its discretion, call at any time a public meeting to interest the general body of the public in the work of the Fund, or for any other purpose connected with relief operations.

15. It shall be within the power of the General Committee to call for and receive from the Executive Committee such reports as may be necessary of the operations of the Fund. All reports so received shall be submitted for the approval of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

16. As a rule, during the continuance of distress, the General Committee shall meet at least once in every month. Ten members of the General Committee shall form a quorum.

17. The Chairman of the Board of Trustees shall be ex-officio Chairman of the General and Executive Committees.

18. The Executive Committee shall meet during the continuance of distress once a week, and shall be vested with full powers to carry on, at its discretion, the work of relief by means of grants to district and sub-divisional authorities, local bodies, or individuals as may appear best suited to accomplish the end in view. Five members of the Executive Committee shall form a quorum.

19. The Executive Committee shall present to the monthly meetings of the General Committee an abstract of the relief work done during the month, and, so far as possible, an estimate of assistance still to be required of the Fund.

20. The Executive Committee shall at intervals of six months, if the work of relief shall continue for any lengthened period, draw up and submit to the General Committee a report of the operations of the Fund.

21. On receiving from the Government of Bengal intimation that the need for relief has passed away, the operations of the Fund shall be closed, a final report drawn up by the Executive Committee, and the Executive and General Committees shall then be dissolved, the management of the Fund reverting to the Board of Trustees as provided for in Rule 11.

22. Vacancies on either of the Committees shall be filled up by the General Committee.

Relief.

23. All applications, except in Calcutta, from public bodies or individuals, must be authenticated by the nearest civil authority. As a rule, the Fund will not make grants except to officers in charge of districts or sub-divisions. Exceptions may be made in special cases, and where such exceptions will not interfere with the relief operations of local authorities.

24. All applications for relief should state, besides the character and causes of the distress, the manner in which it is proposed that relief shall be given, and the character and extent of any local public work it is proposed to undertake.

25. Relief may take the form of supplies of food or seed-grain on the special requisition of any local authority. But, ordinarily, the relief shall be by grants from the Fund payable with the sanction of the Local Government through the various treasuries.

26. With the previous sanction of the Local Government, arrangements may be made with the Accountant-General of Bengal to afford relief in urgent cases by a telegraphic remittance from that officer.

27. Local authorities who may receive relief shall submit a monthly report of their relief operations to the Executive Committee.

28. Grants for relief shall not be expended in any other way than that indicated in the application upon which the grant has been made.

General.

29. The accounts of the Fund shall be audited by the Auditors of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce.

30. Notwithstanding anything provided in the above Rules, it shall be within the authority of the General Committee at their discretion, and in case of distress occurring in any Indian Province other than Bengal, to make a grant-in-aid of relief operations in such province of a sum not exceeding one-fourth part of the total available moneys at their disposal. Such grant shall be in recognition of aid received during past calamities by Bengal from her sister provinces, and as a mark of her sympathy with the sufferings of the people of those provinces.

31. Should there happily be no General Committee of the Fund, and no distress in Bengal, then the power provided for in the foregoing section shall be exercised by the Board of Trustees at their discretion under the sanction of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

S. E. J. Clarke,
Honorary Secretary.
